

POLAND NEAR PEACE WITH RUSSIA AND LITHUANIA

Allied Mission Arrives at Suwalki, and Polish Headquarters Announces That Military Operations Between Poles and Lithuanians Have Ceased.

ARMISTICE WITH RUSSIA TOMORROW

Dombrowski Said to Be Dictating Terms to Bolsheviks, and Both Promise to Return Prisoners and Restore Archives.

By the Associated Press.
RIGA, Oct. 7.—Military operations between the Poles and Lithuanians have ceased, it was announced at Polish headquarters here today. This statement was made in connection with an announcement that the allied mission on the Polish-Lithuanian question had arrived at Suwalki Wednesday.

Polish and Soviet Russian delegates here are today completing the work of framing the final armistice terms between the two governments, and Prince Sapieha, Polish Foreign Minister, is expected to arrive to take part tomorrow in the ceremonies incident to signing the convention.

The exact terms of the agreement have not been made public, but it is learned from authoritative sources that the two governments will covenant mutually to return all prisoners held by them, restore archives and other property, and to pay for property taken or destroyed by either country without military necessity.

Polish claims for a restoration of gold taken from the State bank at Warsaw when the fighting began, and that towns upon the approach of German forces during the world war, now are being considered by the Financial Committee, and there are indications of an adjustment.

Armistice Will Mark Close of Most Serious After-War War.

By the Associated Press.
WARSAW, Oct. 6.—The cessation of hostilities between the Russian, Soviet and Polish forces on Friday, when the armistice is expected to be concluded, will mark the close of the most serious warfare following the great war. The fighting began in December, 1918, and reached an acute stage when the Poles made their first sweep eastward to Kiev, which they captured, followed by their gradual retreat until the Soviet forces had again forced their way westward and were threatening Warsaw. The present negotiations were initiated about that time, first at Minsk and then at Riga, and have resulted in the armistice now announced, which is to bring the fighting to a halt Friday.

Dombrowski Dictates Polish Terms to the Bolsheviks.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
RIGA, Oct. 6.—M. Dombrowski, chairman of the Polish peace delegation, is dictating Poland's terms to the Bolsheviks with almost breathless rapidity, and his points, as fast as he submits them, are being accepted by the Soviet representatives. Yesterday a mutual undertaking was signed that an armistice and preliminary peace would be concluded Friday next.

Dombrowski has forced Polish claim for substantial participation in the Russian gold reserve and the Bolsheviks have agreed to the principle involved, though the precise amount has not yet been fixed.

Amnesty for the Polish communists, imprisoned for conspiring against the Polish Government, has been eliminated from discussions, as also the whole of the East-Galician questions and the question of recognition of the so-called Soviet Governments of White Russia and Ukraine.

The frontier agreed upon starts slightly eastward of Dvinsk, on the Dvina River. It runs to a point almost due south to Molodetschno and to the important junction of Baranowice, hence it skirts sufficiently to the east to protect the Baranowice-Sarny-Rovno Railway line. It then strikes again due south to Zbruz, on the east Galician frontier.

As the Poles refused to discuss the East Galician matter, on the ground that East Galicia never was a part of Russia, no mention of East Galicia is made in the formal terms. But in the practical problem of fixing Poland's eastern boundaries the line will run, as determined by Poland's treaty with the Petlura Government of Ukraine, along the River Zbruz to the Rumanian frontier.

Independence of White Ruthenia and Ukraine May Be Recognized.

What President Wilson Leaves to the Decision of the Voters of Missouri

FOLLOWING is the record of the controversy which President Wilson leaves to the voters of Missouri:

Spencer's Original Statement.

From the Globe-Democrat's report of President Wilson's address to the Million People Convention.

"He (Spencer) quoted Wilson's statement to the Rumanians and Serbs, in which he said Wilson told them that if any nation ever invaded their territory he would send the American army across the seas to defend their boundary lines."

Authority Offered by Spencer.

From his first telegram to the President.

"You must not forget that it is force which is the final guaranty of the public peace. If the world is again troubled the United States will send to this side of the ocean their army and their fleet."

Senator Spencer said he was President Wilson's final word to Senator Spencer was:

"I am perfectly willing to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine what is in telling the truth."

The President has not said whether Gibbons quoted him fairly or not. Assuming that he did, he took only one paragraph from a long address and as seen, Senator Spencer's original assertion which the President branded as false is in wide variance with what Gibbons wrote.

UP TO SPENCER TO MAKE CHARGE GOOD, SAYS TUMULTU

If this session adjourned leaving in the mind of anyone the conviction that we have here expressed the idea that the great powers wish to impose their will upon the smaller nations, out of any feeling of pride or arrogance, I want to call attention to one aspect of this arrangement which we are working on together. We want to insure the peace of the world and to banish all elements of trouble and danger for the future. One of the essential conditions is an equitable distribution of territory in accordance with the desires and affinities of the populations.

Force

"The distribution made, the allied and associated Powers will guarantee the maintenance of the conditions which we shall decide upon, having made these conditions as just as possible. These Powers are the nations which will undertake the contract and the burdens; on them will rest the chief responsibility. Just as by force of circumstances they have made the greatest effort during the war. And it is necessary always to remember that it is force which is the ultimate guaranty of the public peace."

"Under such conditions it is unreasonable that we should say to you, speaking in the language not of dictators but of advisers and friends, that you must guarantee your frontiers here if we do not believe that they conform to certain principles of right and wrong."

Exactly the same line of reasoning applies to the question of minorities. It is with the same concern that conditions as to minorities has been discussed. If you want the principal allies and associated Powers to guarantee the existence of your states, it is unreasonable that they should be satisfied as to conditions which they regard as indispensable if we are to avoid future wars."

No Invasion of Sovereignty.

"We ask our Rumanian and Serbian friends to believe that we have no desire this evening to invade ancient and recognized sovereignties. But the present treaty will add much, and it is impossible, for example, to treat the kingdom of the Serbs, the Croats and the Slovenians as a unit created by the events which we have witnessed, and at the same time, in certain contingencies, to treat the Serbian kingdom as a separate state."

If the States are solidly established, and the conditions which we are making together, the right belongs to the powers which will guarantee the execution of this treaty. In the last analysis, to see to it that the conditions on which these States will be established are of a sort to insure the public peace. Our desire in this is not to interfere in any fashion which might injure these States in any particular, but to aid them and to help the common cause. We hope that you will not hesitate to accept our point of view, because we cannot see another means of settling the question."

"How could the Government of the United States go before the Congress and the people of the United States and pretend that it had assisted in insuring the peace of the world, if it believed that the settlement agreed upon here contained just and dangerous elements?"

"If the world should be troubled again, if the conditions which we all regard as fundamental are

Paris Expects Red Drive on Wrangel

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Oct. 7.—Military circles here are concerned over the effect the conclusion of an armistice between Russia and Poland will have on the campaign of Gen. Baron Wrangel in South Russia. They declare there is no doubt that the Bolsheviks will at once send reinforcements to the Crimean front. Reports emanating from Moscow that a French fleet intends to attack Black Sea ports are denied by the Matin.

TESTIMONY GIVEN BEFORE SENATORS ON GOV. COX NOTE

Accountant for Congressional Aircraft Investigation Unable to Tell What Became of Proceeds.

TRACING $26,250 CONSERVANCY FUND

Evidence Tends to Show It Was Paid to Employees, Found Way Back to Alleged Campaign Fund Donors.

By the Associated Press.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 7.—Wading through a maze of book accounts, Senators Pomerene and Edge of the Senate subcommittee investigating campaign expenditures today sought to obtain some light on a $5000 note given by Gov. James M. Cox, the Democratic presidential nominee, on Aug. 16, 1917, to the City National Bank of this city and paid by the Dayton Metal Products Co. June 29, 1918.

The investigation developed at the first session more into an inquiry into the funds of the Miami conservancy district, evidence tending to show that $26,250 of the conservancy district funds had been paid to employees and finally found its way back to donors to an alleged campaign fund of $37,000.

The Cox note and check of the Dayton Metal Products Co. in payment, were first found by Marvin Scudder, New York accountant employed by congressional committee under the aircraft investigation. Scudder testified, Scudder said that he had no direct knowledge of what was done with the proceeds of the note, but that J. H. Tolbot, president of the Dayton Metal Products Co., had told him that it was for campaign purposes, saying he believed Tolbot had said it was for the election of members of the State Legislature.

Disposition of Proceeds.

"You have no knowledge as to what disposition was made of the proceeds of the note, have you?" Senator Pomerene asked Scudder.

"No sir; only what I have heard," was the answer.

Senator Edge then drew from Scudder the statement that Tolbot had told him that it was for campaign purposes.

Attorney Meier Steinbrink of Brooklyn, who was associated with Charles E. Hogue, committee in its investigation of aircraft production and later with the Free Congress Committee in its investigation, testified that his attention had been called to the Cox note and its payment by the Dayton Metal Products Co. through a coincidence. These dates, detailed in their order, were:

Aug. 2, 1917, Aircraft Production Department referred to G. E. Cox all matters pertaining to construction.

"Aug. 4, 1917, exchange of confidential telegrams between Mr. Deeds and officials of the Dayton-Wright Aircraft Co."

"Aug. 15, 1917, Mr. Deeds commissioned a Colonel."

"Aug. 16, 1917, Gov. Cox note for $5000 discounted."

"Aug. 17, first contract with the Dayton-Wright Aircraft Co. executed."

The Dayton-Wright Aircraft Co., Attorney Steinbrink said, was controlled by the Dayton Metal Products Co., the latter controlling the entire stock excepting five qualifying shares. Col. Deeds, he said, was one of the incorporators of the Dayton-Wright Aircraft Co., but that he had resigned when commissioned a Colonel.

No Knowledge of Disposition.

"As a matter of fact you do not misunderstanding about a matter of such great national importance as to whether you stated to Premier Bratolov of Rumania that an American army and navy would be sent across the sea in case the world is again troubled. It has been for months that your part is incorporated in the stenographic reports of the eighth plenary session of the Peace Conference. I again beg of you to let us know whether such is the fact."

lean labor, a declaration against the blighting hand of government operation, a new pledge of fair dealing with railway owners, and a new command of the Government to American railways to serve the American people.

"It becomes me to speak in detail of this great measure in the home of its sponsor, for so well he knows its provisions so well as he, but I want to emphasize the importance of efficient transportation to the successful activities of modern life. It is not the merchant and manufacturer who are alone concerned, but the farmer and the mine operator. It is not alone the farmer and the stock raiser. Vital as the railways are to these, they are still more necessary to the urban people who constitute the vast majority of American consumers."

"No matter what were the grievances of the past, no matter how they came into being, because we can no longer halt American railroads and hamper their efficiency, without menacing the lives and the health of American millions. They link which do Mother Earth to the American home, and their failure is the failure of America, and their paralysis is the paralysis of the American people."

No Appeal to Group.

"In looking forward to a stable and steady republic, economically restored and made secure, ready to go on with the new order, which is the heritage of war, I am preaching the gospel of common interest in our republic. There is no appeal to group, or section, or to a class in the Republican platform. There will be no such appeal for support by the presidential nominee. I could say to farmers precisely what I say to railway workers, because we are all prospered one body in American activities and make that prosperity permanent without we prosper all. I have no plans for the agricultural south, because we are all prospered one body in American activities and make that prosperity permanent without we prosper all. I have no plans for the agricultural south, because we are all prospered one body in American activities and make that prosperity permanent without we prosper all."

"The platform, to be sure, approaches its endorsement with winding words and sly qualifications calculated to betray the innocent and entrap the unwary; but it does, nevertheless, endorse the league as it stands. It does not advocate or favor any reservations or amendments or changes or qualifications. It goes no further than to suggest that reservations will not be opposed which make clearer or more specific the obligations of the United States to the league."

Seeking Rejection of League.

"But there is no need of reservations of this character. The obligations are clear enough and specific enough. I oppose the proposed league, not because I fail to understand what a former member of the Democratic administration has said 'we are being let in for,' but because I believe I understand precisely what we are being let in for. I do not want to clarify these obligations; I want to turn my back on them. It is not interpretation, but rejection, that I am seeking. My position is that the proposed league know that this note (Gov. Cox note) was paid because of any obligation, political or otherwise?" Senator Pomerene asked. "I do not."

"Have you any knowledge of the disposition of the proceeds of the note given by Gov. Cox?" "I have not."

"Neither do you know the reason of payment of the Cox note by the Dayton Metal Products?" "No."

Harding Declares His Position on the League Is Clear—to Stay Out reversing the order to expedite formal peace, I joined your Senators in the line of sworn duty, to make the best of a difficult situation. We could not make the treaty, but did faithfully endeavor to safeguard America in dealing with the covenant as I have been jealous of the rights of the Senate, because we need a new baptism of constitutionalism in the republic. The Constitution is the rock on which we build; it is the foundation on which the republic will endure."

"Our opponents are persistently curious to know whether, if—or, perhaps I might better say, when—I intend to 'scrap' the league. It might be sufficient in reply to suggest the futility of 'scrapping' something which is already 'scraped.' Whether President Wilson is to be blamed or thanked for the result, the fact remains that the Paris league has been 'scraped' by the hand of its chief architect. The ratified without dotting an 'i' or crossing a 't,' the refusal to advise—that is to counsel—with the Senate, in accordance with the mandate of the Constitution, is wholly responsible for that condition."

"The issue, which our opponents are endeavoring to befog, is singularly simple and direct. That issue, as made by the Democratic President and the Democratic platform, and the Democratic candidate does not present to the American people the question whether they shall favor some form of association among the nations for the purpose of preserving international peace, but whether they favor the particular league proposed by President Wilson. The Democratic platform and candidate have not declared for 'an association, but for 'that' association, and it is that association and not some other which we are promised will be ratified within 60 days if the Democratic candidate is elected."

"The platform, to be sure, approaches its endorsement with winding words and sly qualifications calculated to betray the innocent and entrap the unwary; but it does, nevertheless, endorse the league as it stands. It does not advocate or favor any reservations or amendments or changes or qualifications. It goes no further than to suggest that reservations will not be opposed which make clearer or more specific the obligations of the United States to the league."

"But there is no need of reservations of this character. The obligations are clear enough and specific enough. I oppose the proposed league, not because I fail to understand what a former member of the Democratic administration has said 'we are being let in for,' but because I believe I understand precisely what we are being let in for. I do not want to clarify these obligations; I want to turn my back on them. It is not interpretation, but rejection, that I am seeking. My position is that the proposed league strikes a deadly blow at our constitutional integrity and surrenders to a dangerous extent our independence of action. The Democratic platform rejects this position, to quote the exact words, 'as utterly vain, if not vicious.' The Democratic candidate in his speech of acceptance has said, 'A definite plan has been agreed upon. The League of Nations is in operation.'"

"Senator Harding as the Republican candidate for the presidency proposes in plain words that we remain out of it. As the Democratic candidate, I favor going in. The issue, therefore, is clear. I understand the position of the Democratic candidate and he understands mine, as his own words just now quoted plainly show, notwithstanding the recent pretense that my position has not been made clear. In simple words, it is that he favors going into the Paris league and I favor staying out."

"My Position Perfectly Plain."

"I do not want any one to be misled. I will have no man's vote upon a misunderstanding, and I am equally determined, if I can prevent it, that my opponent shall not have a man's vote upon a misunderstanding. My position, I think, has been made perfectly plain, but whether it has or not, his position is beyond cavil. He who shall go to the Paris league without modification or substantial qualification. To such a betrayal of my countrymen I will never consent. To those who desire to incur the hazard of entrusting any of the powers of the republic to the direction of a super-government, or, if you prefer, to a council of foreign powers, whether the obligation to follow the council should be one of legal or of moral compulsion, I frankly say: Vote the Democratic ticket, and pray God to protect you against the consequences of your folly."

"We have been told that we must ratify the proposed covenant in order to become a member of the league, and that, if we do not, we shall be obliged to stand with hat in hand and sue for admission hereafter. He who shall go to the Paris league without modification or substantial qualification. To such a betrayal of my countrymen I will never consent. To those who desire to incur the hazard of entrusting any of the powers of the republic to the direction of a super-government, or, if you prefer, to a council of foreign powers, whether the obligation to follow the council should be one of legal or of moral compulsion, I frankly say: Vote the Democratic ticket, and pray God to protect you against the consequences of your folly."

"Because we are not vitally concerned in the conflicting interests of Europe, because we are independent, because we are able to approach the solution of the questions which continually threaten the peace of Europe as an unprejudiced umpire rather than an interested party, the world will be glad to have us formulate the plan and point the way. Occupying such a position, we must be careful not to destroy our power to direct our own action, to the compelling or directing will of others."

Won't Try Solution Alone.

"Surely, we have suffered enough from the autocratic assumption of a personal wisdom, which will neither take counsel nor learn from experience. To formulate a plan of international co-operation, which will contribute to the security and peace of the world without sacrificing or dangerously diluting our power to direct our own action, is a task of no small difficulty. I should not be fit to hold the high office of President if I did not frankly say that it is a task which I have no intention of undertaking alone. There are many advisers, reflecting opinions among the people, and among the members of the Senate upon the subject. These opinions must be reconciled and harmonized if we are to have any international association for peace at all."

"I shall not risk embarrassing the final solution of a problem so momentous by undertaking to lay down in advance specific details of plans. I am in favor of our doing our full part in the rehabilitation of the world and in securing humanity against the horror and tragedy of future war."

Would Meet Obligations.

"I am in favor of America meeting her every righteous obligation in the respect. But I shall never present to the Senate any compact by which we shall in any degree surrender or leave in doubt the sovereign powers of the United States to determine, without the compulsion or constraint of any extra-constitutional body, how and when and to what extent our duty in that respect shall be discharged."

"As soon as possible after my election I shall advise with the best minds in the United States and especially I shall consult in advance with the Senate, with whom, by the terms of the Constitution, I shall indeed be bound to counsel and without whose consent no such international association can be formed. I shall define to the end that we shall have an association of nations for the promotion of international peace, but one which shall so definitely safeguard our sovereignty and recognize our ultimate and unimpaired freedom of action that it will have back of it, not a divided and distracted sentiment, but the united support of the American people. Without such united support no plan can be made fully or permanently successful."

PLACE FROM WHICH 32 REGISTERED IS REPORTED VACANT

Republican and Democratic Election Officials Working Together in Canvass Seeking Evidence of Padding.

FIGURES FOR SEVERAL ADDRESSES VARY

One Investigation Begun by Order of Election Board and Another at Instance of Director of Safety.

Two investigations calculated to show if registration for the coming November election has been padded were under way today. One was authorized yesterday by a 3 to 1 majority of the Board of Election Commissioners and the other by James N. McKelvey, Director of Public Safety and a Republican City Committeeman.

The canvass on the part of the Election Board is being made, thus far, only in the Fourth and Fifth Wards, Democratic strongholds, by a Republican and a Democratic election clerk, working together.

The election clerks today reported on a number of places which they visited in the first precinct of the Fifth Ward and the first precinct of the Fourth Ward. The Fifth Ward places visited and the reported results were as follows:

1029 North Third street, 32 registered. Place locked up, apparently vacant.

307 1/2 Pine street, 8 registered. One living there, others not known. Fliters Hotel, 65 registered. Twenty-two found to live there. Others not known.

Sam Favors' negro rooming houses, 409-410 North Levee, 70 registered and all said by Favors to be bona fide lodgers there. Only 54 single bunks found at this place.

Reports on Fourth Ward.

Reports on places in the First Precinct of the Fourth Ward were as follows:

1029 North Third street, 13 registered, 6 not known.

1035 North Third street, 10 registered, 9 not found.

Wash street, 74 registered, 17 not found.

In the canvass thus far, out of 419 registered in the first precinct, Fifth Ward, 61 have not been found, and out of 326 registered in the first precinct, Fourth Ward, 40 have not been found.

The canvass being made for the Department of Public Safety has for its stated purpose an effort to learn if rooming house proprietors are evading the license tax which is regulated in proportion to the number of occupants. The registration lists are being used as a basis for the investigation and reports will be made to the Board of Election Commissioners where it seems that registration padding is shown.

Reports of McKelvey's Men.

The Public Safety Department deputies, after canvassing places in the Fourth and Fifth Wards, have reported as follows:

117 North Sixth street, 14 registered. J. Connors' saloon on first floor, second and third floor vacant.

No explanation obtainable.

417 Morgan street, 28 registered. Pleasant Hotel, with 17 roomers.

403 Morgan street, 25 registered. Little Southern Hotel. Ten steady roomers.

410-11 Morgan street, 12 registered. P. J. O'Hara's restaurant. Only bed is on second floor of 412 and is used by O'Hara. Persons registered not known there.

Other Discrepancies Reported.

132 Chestnut street, 23 registered. Garrick Hotel, proprietor Emory Chase, Democratic candidate for the legislature. Chase said he had 12 roomers. Further explanation unobtainable.

The canvassers reported that though they saw signs of occupancy they could not gain admission to 112, 124A, 244A, 256, 262A, 259 and 212A North Fourteenth street.

From this row of houses 63 were registered.

114 North Fourteenth street, 20 registered. Five live there, others not known.

124 North Fourteenth street, 15 registered. Three rooms, one bed. Three persons live there.

120 North Fourteenth street, four registered. Costello's plumbing shop, no bed.

1407 Franklin avenue, 16 registered. Could not get in.

124 North Thirteenth street, 11 registered. Family of five lives there.

15 Registered, 2 Voters Found.

1400 Franklin avenue, nine registered. William Egan's saloon on first floor. Seven double beds and "flopping space" for seven persons on second floor.

1254 Franklin avenue, 15 registered. Three-story building. One bed on second floor, one on third floor. Five persons live here, two steady voters.

The investigation as ordered by the Board of Election Commissioners was opposed by Chairman Arnold, a Democrat, who gave out a statement that he would favor an investigation of any specific charges of fraud, but did not believe in an Serve 300 Persons at Joint C. of C. Luncheon, at Which Americanization Is Discussed.

When the waiters' strike brought the announcement that the joint luncheon of the Women's Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber of Commerce, as an "Americanization Jubilee," at Hotel Statler yesterday, could not be served, the members of the Women's Chamber of Commerce stepped into the breach, or, rather, into the kitchen, and served the luncheon themselves. Comment of the men indicated that they served it well.

The women's organization had a morning meeting of 150 members at the Statler, and at 11:30 a. m. Mrs. George J. Dietz of the Shedd Hotel, who was to act as "captain of waitresses," called for assistants. Forty responded, and were assigned one to a table, each table seating seven guests.

The women, who did not remove their hats, or their smiles, set the tables and served the first course, rolled ham, potato salad and rolls, before the others arrived. The finishing touches were made as the guests were seated, and later the "waitresses" brought coffee and dessert. None looked, in the plates afterward in search of reward. About 300 persons were served.

Superintendent of Instruction Withers gave figures which he declared were gratifying indications of the extent of Americanization in St. Louis. At present, he said, there are only 953 pupils, partly adult, attending the night schools, who are not familiar with the English language. Of these, 262 are foreign-born persons who cannot speak the language of this country, 111 are native-born white illiterates and 580 are negro illiterates. Dr. Withers said he would present plans for an extension of Americanization work in the schools to the Committee of Instruction.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Frank de Garmo, chairman of the Women's Chamber of Commerce Americanization department. Raymond Christ, director of citizenship of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was the principal speaker, telling of the activities of his department. Miss Irene Hickey, a field worker of the Bureau of Naturalization; M. R. Bevington, chief of the local naturalization bureau, and Scott Hancock of the Chamber of Commerce, also spoke.

Illinois Dry Chief Warns Druggists Not to Accept Prescriptions Numbered Under 36,000.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Druggists of the Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana districts were warned yesterday by Federal Prohibition Director Ralph W. Stone to watch for 10,000 liquor prescription blanks, stolen from his office within the last few days, and which are good, when filled out, for $30,000 worth of whisky, it was said. Any blanks presented bearing numbers under 36,000 should be refused by druggists, Stone said.

Investigation "for the purpose of verifying mere suspicions." In a statement Arnold said St. Louis now has a large floating population and that a liberal construction of the law would allow persons to pick their voting residences where the consent of the owner of the premises. He cited the case of Miss Charlotte Rasmussen, who now lives in Washington, but desires to maintain her voting residence in St. Louis. It would be proper for her to fix her voting residence at any hotel in St. Louis.

SEEK PAPERS TO ADMINISTER AUNT'S ESTATE OF $167,000

Mrs. Frances Posey and Brother File Application in Connection With Property in Franklin County.

Mrs. Frances Posey, who until recently lived at 1872A Delmar boulevard, and a brother have made application to the probate court in Franklin County at Union, Mo., for letters of administration on the estate of Mary Francis Roberts.

Miss Roberts, who lived at Robertsville, Mo., died Sept. 25 last. She was 72 years old and had been blind for many years. In their application Mrs. Posey and her brother stated to the court that it was estimated that Miss Roberts left personal property valued at $25,000, and real estate valued at $15,000.

Edward J. Roberts, who died in 1899, leaving an estate reported by the administrator to have been worth $256,000, his only heirs being Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Posey, his granddaughter, who then was Miss Mary Frances Roberts Jr. He left no will. While Mrs. Posey was living at 4444 Lindell boulevard, Jan. 3, 1919, Mrs. E. White was killed there while visiting the place with other men. He was shot while tending the furnace in the basement and his slayers escaped in an automobile.

12. ST. LOUISANS PROFIT $1,000,000 IN TURPENTINE DEAL

Ben G. Brinkman, president of the Yarnan Rosin and Turpentine Co., who also is second vice president of the Lafayette-South Side Bank, announced today that the properties of the Yarnan company had been sold for $2,500,000 to the Hercules Powder Co. (branch of the Dupont Powder Co.) and that a dozen St. Louisans interested in the deal had made approximately $1,000,000.

A. M. Frumberg, who, with Edward W. Foristel, represented the Yarnan company in the deal, said the company only recently wound up receivership proceedings in the United States District Court at Savannah, Ga., which had been pending for about two years.

St. Louis stockholders, in addition to Brinkman, Frumberg and Foristel, were Theodore Hemmelman, Herman Desloge, John F. Queeny, Frank Ruf and Julius Pitzman. The company had an option on 25,000 acres of yellow pine lands in Georgia and extracted rosin from tree stumps. They had plants at Brunswick, Ga., and Gulfport, Miss.

Girls, Don't Wash Your Face

Use Liska cold cream instead you have never used anything like it. Just try it once and you will never wash your face again. Soap and water has a tendency to make the skin rough, and does not cleanse the skin as thoroughly as Liska cold cream. To prove it make this test: Wash your face with soap and water, then thoroughly, then apply Liska cold cream. Massage it well into the skin, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft white cloth. It cleanses the skin and softens and beautifies the skin. For sunburn or after a dusty auto trip there is nothing like it. It's fine after shaving too. Let father or brother try it. Just compare Liska cold cream with any other you have ever used, and you will need no further argument to convince you of its superiority. Put it in tubes, the only sanitary way. Try it today. It's delightful. It's the only toilet counters everywhere including Wolff-Wilkinson, Johnson, Johnson Bros., and the Kenderle Drug Co.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST YOUTH IN DRUGGIST'S KILLING

Information Issued on Statements of Several Persons Clarence Dunsford Was One Who Ran From Store.

REPORTED NEAR STORE ON SEVERAL NIGHTS

Arrest Made as Result of Anonymous Letter—Merchant Was Shot in His Place on Sept. 24.

An information charging Clarence Dunsford, 23 years old, of 2750 Caroline street, with first degree murder was issued today on the charge that he shot and killed William Laumann the night of Sept. 24 last in the attempted robbery of Laumann's drug store at 2101 South Jefferson avenue. The slayer also shot and dangerously wounded Laumann's son, Francis, 10 years old, who is in a serious condition at the city hospital.

At the Circuit Attorney's office it was said several persons who said they believed Dunsford was the slayer had been taken there by the police, but that the information was preliminary to a thorough investigation of the case by the Grand Jury, when all the witnesses will be asked to testify, including Laumann's son, if he is able to appear.

Two witnesses have said Dunsford "looks very much like" a young man they saw coming from the drug store after the shooting. Three other witnesses have more positively said he was in the neighborhood of the drug store a short time before the shooting.

Loaded Revolver in Room.

Dunsford denies the shooting. He has given the police several different accounts as to his whereabouts at the time, but none of these could be verified. He at first said he was at home when the shooting occurred, but this was denied by members of his family.

Dunsford was arrested Monday night, after Mrs. Laumann had received an anonymous letter which advised her to have Dunsford arrested, as a witness could identify him.

Police learned that Dunsford recently had been rooming at 1820 Kennett place. They found him there. Search of the rooms revealed a loaded revolver. Detectives also arrested Genevieve Kelly, a stenographer, who gave her address as 2016 Locust street, but who has also been living at the Kennett place address, where, the police say, she and Dunsford were known as "Mr. and Mrs. Turner."

Joseph A. Michel, of 2337 Missouri avenue, and William Rogensue, of 2335 Russell avenue, were passing the drug store when Laumann's slayer came out of it. Both said Dunsford looked like the man they saw. Michel said he "had the same complexion and general appearance."

Rogensue said: "I'm satisfied he is the one."

Viewed by Laumann's Son.

Dunsford was taken to the city hospital to be viewed by Laumann's young son. Before the prisoner was taken in the boy said the man who killed his father had a conspicuous scar on his right ear. Dunsford has such a scar. William Dunsford was taken before the boy, the latter, after regarding him closely, said: "I am pretty sure he's the one."

Dunsford explained the scar on his

FLIES SAFELY IN FLAME-ENVELOPED FIREPROOF PLANE

Airman Demonstrates New Protective Material and Daylight Flare for Landing in Dark.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Experts of the army and navy aviation service today are preparing reports to the Government on the flying demonstration of a flaming oil-covered, fire-proofed airplane and its midnight landing device, witnessed by them last night at Mineola. American and British experts who saw the spectacular demonstration by Paul Collins, a civilian flyer, said it marked one of the most important developments in aviation since the armistice.

Particular importance is attached to the demonstration because of the recent loss of so many mail aviators caused by flaming machines.

Before making his ascent to an altitude of 600 feet, Collins' machine was treated throughout with the fireproofing "dope" and then completely covered with gasoline.

On his descent, at about 1000 feet, he also touched off two large flares of magnesium on the tips of the wings, and, by manipulating two large mirrors underneath the fuselage, he illuminated the whole landing field, enabling him to make a perfect "daylight" landing.

When ladders were brought rescuers worked desperately. Firemen in gas masks descended into the smoke-filled hold. Bodies were hauled up with ropes and the injured rushed to hospitals.

An hour after the explosion, four bodies had been recovered. A hasty check up of workers showed four more missing. The number of injured was not known definitely, but a report made to Police Headquarters stated a dozen were killed and many injured. Ambulances and Red Cross workers were sent to the scene from Brooklyn hospitals.

Because of intense confusion in the yard it was difficult to obtain accurate information even an hour after the blast. It was believed, however, that a score of workmen had been trapped in the hold.

The blast blew a great hole in the starboard side of the ship. At one point the vessel appeared to be trapped below. He pleaded with his fellow workers to rescue him. A hose was turned on him while workers raised a cry of "Ladders! Ladders!"

When ladders were brought rescuers worked desperately. Firemen in gas masks descended into the smoke-filled hold. Bodies were hauled up with ropes and the injured rushed to hospitals.

According to T. Murphy, first officer of the Crow, about 100 men were on the forward part of the vessel when the explosion came and nearly 200 more working around her. None was in the forward tank hold, which blew up when workmen approached it with gas torches.

G. Starr, one of the workmen, had a remarkable escape. He was blown more than 60 feet onto the roof of a shed, uninjured except for a few cuts and bruises.

Fire did not follow the explosion, but a column of flame leaped from the steel hull of the Crow.

Agents of the Department of Justice were on the scene shortly after the explosion, and, in conjunction with the Police Department, began an investigation.

Statement by Prisoner.

Dunsford today said to a Post-Dispatch reporter that last December he was paroled from the reform school to the Rev. James H. Coll, pastor of the Compton Heights Christian Church, and had been reporting to him regularly. He said that on the day of the murder he quit work at 5 p. m. and went to the Kennett place rooming house and did not go out that night.

Miss Dorothy Young of 2655 Russell avenue today went to police headquarters and viewed Dunsford. She said she was certain he was the young man she saw standing across the street from the drug store when she went to mail a letter the night of the shooting. She noticed him particularly, she said, because he had his right hand in his pocket and at the time she wondered if he had a weapon. She described him as having a "funny stare."

Workers Repairing Vessel in Brooklyn Yards Are Trapped in Hold.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—An oil tank aboard the British steamer G. R. Crowe, tied up for repairs in Shewan's drydock, in Brooklyn, exploded early this afternoon while approximately 100 men were working on the craft.

Nearly an hour after the explosion the number of killed and injured was not known definitely, but a report made to Police Headquarters stated a dozen were killed and many injured. Ambulances and Red Cross workers were sent to the scene from Brooklyn hospitals.

ANIMALS AND BIRDS BOUGHT BY OFFICIALS FOR THE ZOO

Pair of Giant Kangaroos Purchased by Commissioner Page on Inspection Trip.

Park Commissioner Page and Secretary Vierheller of the Zoological Board returned today from a two weeks' tour of inspection of zoos in other cities, confirmed in the opinion that in landscaping the St. Louis zoo beats all of them, although others may have more animals.

Vierheller said that the idea in the other cities seemed to be to get the animals and provide a place for them without regard to the seamlessness or suitability of the surroundings.

The trip was made for ideals and animals. They obtained a few ideas and a number of animals and birds. They visited the zoos of Washington, New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Buffalo, Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee. In Washington they ordered from the Government zoo a pair of giant kangaroos, 18 months old, for $260; a female red deer for $20; a pair of Indian laughing thrushes for $25; a pair of African pintail wydahs for $10; two male African broadtail wydahs for $20; one European magpie for $10; one European bluejay for $5; two pairs African red-faced amandines for $12; and three pairs Australian shell percoets for $24. The birds are expected to arrive today.

WARRANT SOUGHT FOR STUDENT UNDER WAR EXPLOSIVES ACT

Chiropractor Says He Got Dynamo to Experiment Along Ideas He Got When in Army.

Paul Cusnell, 29 years old, of 1625 Belt avenue, a chiropractor with an office in Wellston and a student in the St. Louis University Medical School, was held today by the Federal authorities pending consideration of an application for a warrant charging him with violating the wartime explosives act. This act makes it an offense to possess explosives without having obtained a permit. The application for a warrant was made by Vance J. Higgs, special assistant to the Attorney General.

Cusnell obtained 25 sticks of dynamite, 100 percussion caps and several yards of fuse through Joseph Piacentini of 5765 Easton avenue, proprietor of an oil filling station. Piacentini was arrested, but was released after it was made clear that he acted only as an agent for Cusnell.

Cusnell said he served overseas with the Army Medical Corps, and that he formed ideas for the improvement of explosives, with which ideas he wished to experiment. He said this was his reason for buying the dynamite and accessories. The Government officials were inclined to believe this. He denied any knowledge of plots or threats, here or elsewhere, involving the use of explosives.

PLAN TO REGULATE AUTOS WOULD INCLUDE "POUND"

Machines Would Be Held Pending Disposition of Charges of Law Violation, and Ownership Traced.

Representatives of civic and municipal bodies are working on a proposed city ordinance for the regulation of traffic which will probably include provision for the registration of all motor car drivers of the city, the establishment of a "pound" where the automobiles of traffic law violators would be held, pending investigation of their ownership and disposition of the driver's offense; regulation of the taxicab and service car business and fixing of the permissible rates to be charged for the service of such machines.

Other provisions which might be incorporated in the law are for the extension of the north-and-south one-way streets downtown, the creation of a two-hour parking zone outside the present one-hour zone downtown, and, possibly, the prohibition of parking downtown at certain hours.

Alderman Wyrick, chairman of the legislative committee of the Board of Aldermen, is in charge of the drafting of the proposed ordinance, and consulting with him are City Counselor Daves, Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert and the traffic committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Several weeks of investigation of conditions have already passed.

Expected to Check Crime.
The ordinance, it is believed, will have an important effect in the suppression of crime, through its clauses dealing with the registration of drivers and the "impounding" of machines. It is a known fact that the automobile is an important accessory of modern criminals of all degrees.

The ordinance is proposed to include the creation of a bureau of traffic, which, under the city charter, would function under the Department of Streets and Sewers. Director of Streets and Sewers Talbert said he did not believe the bureau necessary unless the ordinance provides for the registration of all automobile drivers—owners, chauffeurs and service drivers, and for the suspension or revocation of their permits when they violate the traffic ordinances.

Without such features in the ordinance he said his department could handle the other provisions without additional expense of a new bureau. He pointed out that his department now tests the lights of automobiles to see that they comply with the law, and said it would be easy to add tests for reliability, especially in the case of machines which are to be used as service cars.

Various suggestions, some of which may be included in the proposed ordinance, have reached the Street Department. The streets downtown, between Market street and Washington avenue, which now may be used only one way—Sixth and Eighth streets, south, and Seventh and Ninth streets, north, may be made one-way streets as far north as Franklin avenue.

The daytime one-hour parking zone, downtown, roughly extends from Third to Twelfth streets and from Market street to Washington avenue. Several blocks on the north and south, but not to the west, may be added to this district, but with the provision that daytime parking in the additional blocks be for two hours.

In the present one-hour parking zone it may be arranged to bar parking entirely during the busiest hours of the day. This is done in some cities.
"Impounding" Proposal.
Alderman Wyrick stated his belief that the registration of all automobile drivers, coupled with a rigid examination, would reduce the number of accidents and fatalities, as well as hamper criminals. He said that the "pound" for the automobiles of traffic law violators would serve as a place for the police to investigate ownership of the machines pending disposition of the drivers' cases in police court. The inconvenience of this scheme to the driver is calculated to impress him with his offense.

Discussing the failure of passage of two taxicab ordinances in recent years, both of which included rate regulation for service driving, officials said they failed because they were too involved. It is hoped by them that the new proposition will clearly cover the matter of rates. The chief present regulation of taxicabs and service cars is that of issuing permits for those which have fixed stands, a process which involves police investigation.

City Counselor Daves suggested that a deterrent to traffic law violations would be the publication of names of all offenders. He was not sure whether this could be done by co-operation of the press or if the names would have to be printed as legal advertising.
WOMAN TAKES POISON AT HOTEL.
Gives Separation From Husband as Reason.
Mrs. Louise Rasseur, 29 years old, of 3542 South Jefferson avenue, lately employed at the Albers Hotel, 2100 North Broadway, was found in a room there suffering from poison yesterday evening.

At the city hospital she told policemen she had tried to end her life because of separation from her husband, John, whose address she did not know. The South Jefferson address, she said, was the home of her mother, Mrs. Christina Reither. Her condition is critical.

They are made to stand up about the kiddies as they sit on the nursery floor. There are also domestic animal stories in a set.

Dr Eliot Likens Republican Attacks on Wilson to Villification Heaped on Washington During His Incumbency

Asks Whether the Voters of the Country Prefer to Uphold His Ideal and Progressive Leadership or to Return to Forces of Reaction.

THE POST-DISPATCH herewith presents the third installment of the article in the October Atlantic Monthly on "The Vote's Choice in the Coming Election," by Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University. The two remaining installments will be published tomorrow and Saturday, respectively.

THE difference between the Democratic policy and the Republican in respect to the covenant and treaty is now clearly defined. So is the difference between President Wilson's ideal and those of the present Republican leaders. Which ideal is the majority of the American voters going to prefer? Which leaders are they going to follow—the heirs of President Wilson's policies, or the Republican leaders who have kept the United States out of the league and poured contempt and insults on President Wilson's character, manners and measures? If President Wilson's estimate of the moral quality of the American people is correct, many young voters and many ex-soldiers many fathers and mothers of sons who died or were crippled in the war, and many non-partisan or independent voters will take the noble and disinterested side, and reject the leadership of those Republicans who have lost sight of the fact that the Republican party was at its origin the party which stood for human liberty, for justice to the oppressed and for a great expectancy of good for suffering humanity.

The fall of the Republican party between the summer of 1915 and the summer of 1920 is an extraordinary political phenomenon. In 1915 a group of Republican leaders, headed by Henry Cabot Lodge, used the following language:

This is not the President's personal war. This is not the war of Congress. It is not the war of the Democratic or the Republican party. It is the war of the American people. It is more. It is the war of the United States, of the allied Powers, of the civilized world against the barbarism of Germany. In this great burden and responsibility the Republican party, representing more than half the citizenship of the country, demands its rightful share.

A New League.

According to the Chicago platform the Republican party in 1920 stands for agreement among the nations to preserve the peace of the world; but this must be effected through a new association of nations and "without depriving the people of the United States in advance of the right to determine for themselves what is just and fair when the occasion arises and without involving them as participants, and not as peace-makers, in a multitude of quarrels the merits of which they are unable to judge." It affirms that "The Senators performed their duty faithfully. We approve their conduct, and honor their courage and fidelity."

Since the triumph of these Republican leaders in the Senate, some new calamities have befallen Europe and the Near East, and some new dangers threaten democracy and civilization. War has broken out again in Europe and the Near East at several points, the very existence of Poland as a free nation has been imperiled, millions of people lack food, clothing and fuel, and the industrial and financial restoration of the belligerent nations is cruelly delayed.

Play your Victor Records with the Victor Tung-tone Stylus

Tungsten is the only known fibrous metal. It is so fibrous that a filament of it can be opened out at the end like a paint brush. You can unwind it.

Scientists of the Victor Company, searching the far places of the earth for the perfect substance to make a reproducing point, discovered in tungsten exactly the peculiar properties necessary for this difficult requirement.

The Victor Company immediately patented the use of tungsten for this purpose. You can obtain its signal advantages only in the Victor Tung-tone Stylus.

Your desire for the best musical reproduction, your convenience and your anxiety to protect your records are all completely met—by the Victor Tung-tone Stylus only.

Marxian Socialism, with its despotic superstate, seems to be gaining ground on the Continent and Latin America. It seems probable, though not certain, that these new evils would not have occurred and these new dangers would not have arisen if the same and strong influence of the United States had been exerted from the beginning in the League of Nations.

29 in League Now.

Now the League of Nations already contains 29 nations; it is in operation and has made important contributions toward a proper organization of the league and its various agencies. But its beneficent action is crippled by the absence of the United States as a member of the Executive Council of the league. The Republican candidate for President declares that he will not carry the country into the existing League of Nations. The party, instead of demanding its rightful share in the burden and responsibility of the war, proposes that this country take no share in the burden of securing the results of the war, and advises the American people to look first to the maintenance of their own independence and the security of their own property, and to renounce all sense of obligation to the other free nations which were associated with America in the conduct of the war against Germany. The party has turned its back on its own principles of 1860 and 1918. This deplorable change of front is a deep mortification and distress to all patriotic Americans, Republican or Democratic, and particularly to those who remember the political ideals which the Republican party was founded to contend for, and which led it to glorious victories. Within the memory of living men no political party in this country has suffered so crushing a catastrophe. Habitual Republicans may well consider how this downfall is to be remedied. Surely not by putting the country into the hands of the very men who have led the party into its present plight.

The services of President Wilson to the cause of permanent peace at the conferences at Paris were very great, and they were successful to an extraordinary degree. It was he who persuaded the other negotiators to make the covenant and league indispensable parts of any final settlement. The provisions of the league are so interwoven with the provisions of the treaty that the union is all-pervasive. The league provides the means of carrying out the provisions of the treaty, and throughout the treaty the league appears as the indispensable instrument for executing, and also for modifying the terms of, the covenant and treaty, as occasion may require. That the covenant and treaty together contain the means of abolishing secret treaties and understandings, of reducing armaments and curbing nations inclined to attack their neighbors or to cause dangerous friction in international dealings, is due to President Wilson and to the influence of his ideals on the governments and peoples of Europe.

Wilson Ideals Win.

The other negotiators did not share President Wilson's ideals when the conferences began, and at the end they probably accepted them with but scant belief in their efficacy. All parties in Great Britain have been for centuries shy of ideals in general, and have been ready to abandon theories and logical aims in favor of compromises and short steps toward some immediate practical end. French diplomacy has for many years depended on secret alliances and secret, even unrecorded, understandings. The general attitude of Premier Clemenceau throughout the conferences was one of cynical distrust. He had no faith that strong nations could be, or were going to be, influenced in their relations with other nations by anything but their own interests and passions. He felt that France could be protected against Germany in the future only by reducing Germany to impotency, and that no League of Nations and no affirmations of international good will could be trusted to make France safe. Yet there resulted from the conferences at Paris far-reaching international agreements much more promising than the world has ever known before toward the abolition of autocratic government, militarism, competitive armaments, secret diplomacy, balances of power and wars of conquest. This result is due to President Wilson's ideals and his persuasiveness or combativeness on their behalf, backed as they were by the unanimous rush of the American people.

ATTACKS ON WILSON LIKE THOSE MADE UPON WASHINGTON

people in April, 1917, into the war against Germany.
 The reader who has apprehended the quality of the foregoing quotations from President Wilson's messages and addresses and the nature and extent of his services at the Paris conference will now be prepared to appreciate the following extract from an editorial in the Philadelphia Public Ledger of July 21: "Mr. Cox and his personal staff will not be able to sink from under the burdens of the Wilson administration. They must defend their records or be condemned for them."

Only in that way can the American people pronounce their final judgment on Wilsonism. Otherwise Wilsonism escapes scrutiny. There is no method by which a party can inflict on this nation the life of an experimental, pseudo-scientific, irritatingly impractical, openly sectional, poisoning the Socialist government, and get away with it without any "come-back." The Democratic party must accept the consequences of its "seven last years" and await the verdict of a thoroughly emancipated people.

Washington Attacked.

A good parallel with this criticism of "Wilsonism" and the Wilson administration is to be found in the Aurora, a paper which was being published in the same city of Philadelphia in 1791. The following sentence was published in the Aurora a few days before Washington returned from the presidency and returned to his farm.

If ever a nation was debauched by a man, the American nation has been debauched by Washington; if ever a nation was deceived by a man, the American nation has been deceived by Washington.

A few days later, an anonymous correspondent of the Aurora wrote as follows:

When a retrospect is taken of the Washington administration for eight years, it is a subject of the greatest astonishment that a single individual should have conquered the principles of republicanism in an enlightened people just emerged from the gulf of despotism, and should have carried his designs against the public liberty so far as to have put in jeopardy its very existence.

The Public Ledger's criticisms of "Wilsonism" this summer are as well-headed as those of the Aurora against Washington; but they do not transcend in stupidity and irrelevancy the epithets which the Republican official documents and the speeches of Republican orators now apply to President Wilson. Here is an incomplete group of those epithets—autocrat, usurper, despot, dictator, hypocrite, phrase-maker, obstinate, tyrannical, deceitful, insincere, narrow-gauged, and greedy jealous of friends and foes alike. May all thoughtful and open-minded voters keep these epithets in mind this fall! The recollection will help them to decide whether they will aid to put the man that use them in control of the Government for the next four years.

(To Be Continued in the Post-Dispatch Tomorrow.)

Springfield, Ill., Short 1000 Homes, by the Associated Press.
 SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—Approximately 1000 homes are lacking for the adequate housing of the population of this city, according to C. L. PEACE SUPPLANTS WAR IN MEXICO, SAYS GEN. OBREGON

Mexican President-Elect Asks Americans to Aid Him to "Abolish War Everywhere."

By the Associated Press.
 EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 7.—"The era of war is over in Mexico, and the era of peace has come for all time. I hope my good American friends will unite with me in the effort to abolish war everywhere," said Gen. Alvaro Obregon, President-elect of Mexico, here yesterday.

He was speaking to American citizens and high Mexican officials at a luncheon given him by a local club on his visit to the International Exposition and Military Carnival.
 Gen. Obregon came across the Rio Grande in his special train—the first passenger train to enter the United States from Mexico in nearly 19 years.

Gen. Obregon was given an ovation when he reached the Union Station. He was greeted by a crowd numbering about 10,000, which lined the streets from the station to his hotel.

He was joined today by Col. H. W. Miller, sent here by the War Department to act as honorary aide. Gen. Obregon will be given a banquet this evening and will be entertained by American and Mexican residents during his stay. He will leave Saturday morning for Nogales, Sonora, where his wife and family are staying.

Good Milk Means Much to Men Who Toil

The ability of St. Louis Dairy Company's milk to furnish the body with muscle building nourishment, makes it an ideal food for men whose tasks call for strength and endurance.

Drink more pure rich milk. This is the advice of authorities in a position to know. Good milk is easily digested, rich in nutrient and long in sustaining qualities.

MORE INDICTMENTS IN BELLEVILLE OIL SALES EXPECTED

Several Persons Other Than
 Dr. J. G. Massie Said to Be Involved in Deals in Ilghoma Stock.

Indictments against several persons, growing out of the sale of stock in the Ilghoma Petroleum and Gasoline Co. to residents of Belleville and vicinity, were expected to be announced today, following the arrest of Dr. John G. Massie of Belleville, who is held in the St. Clair County Jail under 46 indictments.

The total bail requirement for Dr. Massie is $54,200, and he has not thus far been able to furnish this security.

Twenty of the indictments against him charge a "confidence game," and 26 charge conspiracy to defraud, in the sale of the oil stock.

List of Complainants.
 A list of the complainants, and the amounts which they say were involved in their purchases of stock, is furnished by perusal of the indictments. Twenty complainants are named in the indictments charging a "confidence game," and the total amount involved is $20,015. The list is:

George Ruebel Sr., $1000; John A. Leubner, $300; Walter F. Hoehner, $450; Anna Voellinger, $140; William Schaumleffel, $2000; Mary Blauwitz, $300; Thomas Miller, $450; Ben Merck, $3000; Frank Herr, $150; James Hausknecht, $600; George Briesacher, $1000; Julius Engelmann, $1500; Dr. Edward H. Tegtmeler, $5000; Gustav Zimmermann, $625; George Hessler, $200; Lawrence Ferguson, $500; George Bartelbert, $500; Walter J. Dittie, $200; Jacob Merod, $1000, and Joseph W. Holden, $500.

The same names and amounts appear in the indictments charging conspiracy, and, in addition, the conspiracy indictments show the names of these complaining witnesses:

Dr. William Bahrenburg in two cases, one of $3000 and one of $2000; Clarence J. Fischer, $2100; Oliver E. Eckert, $1500; Edward W.

Seibert, $1000; Lawrence Ferguson, $1050; and George Ruebel Sr., $3000. Ruebel was named in the other indictment in the amount of $1000, and Ferguson in the amount of $500.

Total Amount, $32,165.

The total amount involved thus far appears to be $32,165, with 24 complainants.

Dr. Tegtmeler, who invested $5000, lives at Millstadt, and was one of the closest friends of Dr. Massie, the latter having performed an operation on him a few months ago. William Schaumleffel, one of the complaining witnesses, is the brother of State's Attorney Schaumleffel.

Dr. Massie is president of the Ilghoma Petroleum and Gasoline Co.

Legion Post to Chop Wood.

By the Associated Press.
 WEBB CITY, Mo., Oct. 7.—Doris Schalk post of the American Legion here apparently has solved its fuel problem for this winter. Members of the post are planning to take trucks into the country next Sunday and cut dead timber for use as fuel in their club rooms. A picnic dinner will be served.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POWER PLANT PROPOSED AT LEBANON, MO.

LEBANON, Mo., Oct. 7.—A hydro-electric power company to furnish power for the operation of street cars, manufacturing plants and for domestic purposes in Central Missouri towns, is being proposed here. Lebanon bank, said plans were under way for the construction of a power plant on the Niangua River, near here.

At one place in the river, Nelson said, a tunnel can be constructed about half a mile long, which would give the water a fall of more than five feet, which is enough to generate considerable power. Towns which may be furnished with power, he said, are Lebanon, Jefferson City, Versailles, Eldon, California, Russellville and Bagnell. The proposed plant will be similar to a larger one on the White River in Taney County, which serves Springfield, Joplin, Webb City, Carthage, Aurora, Monett and Pierce City.

ILLINOIS WOMEN VOTERS IN CONVENTION AT CHICAGO

Change of Organization Name and Merging of Interests Voted—St. Louis Woman to Speak.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Merger of the 200,000 members of the Illinois Equal Suffrage Association into the Illinois League of Women Voters was the first action undertaken at the fifty-second and final convention of the organization, which began a three-days' session yesterday.

Mrs. Grace Wilbur Trout, president of the association, said the league would in no way interfere with the political affiliations of the women, but would be "all partisan in scope." Its work, she said, will be largely educational.

More than 500 delegates from the State are here for the convention. Mrs. George Gellhorn of St. Louis, from the board of the National League of Women Voters, and Miss Elizabeth Hauser of Ohio, regional director in the Sixth District, are among the speakers on the program. Women members of both the Republican and Democratic National Committees will be heard tonight.

SCHOOL CHILDREN DECREASING

State Enumeration Shows 69,595 Fewer Than in 1910.

By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, Oct. 7.—Enumeration of school children in Missouri in 1920, which has just been completed by Sam A. Baker, Superintendent of Schools, shows a decrease of 69,595 under the figures for 1910. The total enumeration this year was 905,911. In 1910 it was 975,504.

High-school enrollment in the State, however, shows an increase of more than 50 per cent. There were 36,810 high school pupils in Missouri in 1910, while 60,639 were enrolled in 1920. Although school census statistics indicate a decrease in the number of children of school age in Missouri, the total attendance, based on the number of children per day, is nearly stable. The attendance total for 1910 was 73,965,726, and for this year it was 73,412,523. This is due, largely, to the compulsory education laws passed in recent years, under which more children of school age attend classes and for a longer time than formerly.

Mission Reports Capitalist System Has Been Destroyed, but Nothing Worth While Substituted.

WORKERS' CONTROL STOPS PRODUCTION

Doubtful if Country, Least of All Suited for Communism, Can Recover, Delegation Reports.

By the Associated Press.

ROME, Oct. 7.—Conditions in Russia are shown to be very serious in a report on that country made public by the Confederation of Labor. This report was compiled by a Socialist mission which left here some time ago for Russia and spent some time there.

The Russian people, it says, are completely lacking in experience in politics. The physical condition of the people in town is at low ebb, owing to insufficient nourishment, while economic life is marked by destitution. The management of industries, which has been placed directly in the hands of workers, is declared to have been disastrous. Productive organizations have become almost inactive, and the whole country, with the exception of a few localities, has not succeeded in rousing itself from lassitude.

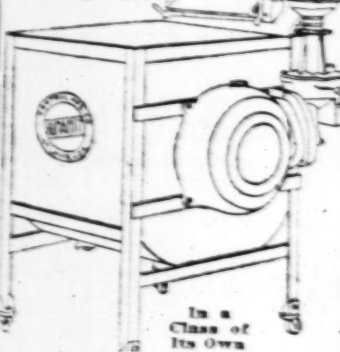

Recovery Said to Be Doubtful. War, it is asserted, has occupied most of the energies of the Bolshevik Government, but, judging from what little it tried to do toward the economic reconstruction of the country, it is extremely doubtful the report says, whether Russia, abandoned as she is to her own resources, can recover herself sufficiently to re-establish tolerable conditions of life.

The report, nevertheless, denies the Soviet regime is nearing its end, for, despite the gravity of economic conditions, certain gains of the revolution have been consolidated. One instance of this is cited in the establishment of a system of small properties which can be transmitted by inheritance. These properties are in rural districts, and the peasants would resist any reactionary attack upon the system. This is declared not to be due to communism, which does not exist in these districts.

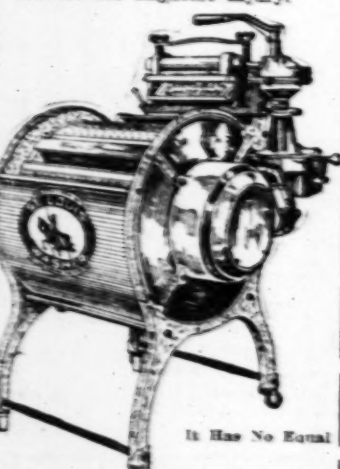

"It is difficult," says the report

ADVERTISEMENTRATS, MICE, COCKROACHES MUST BE KILLED

To Help Prevent the Spread of Diseases From Infected Places.

The Federal, State and Municipal authorities throughout the entire country have decided that the people everywhere must co-operate in the killing of Rats, Mice, Cockroaches, Vespertiles, Ants and other pests.

It has been scientifically proven that the above mentioned pests are directly responsible for the spreading of Bubonic Plague and other dreadful diseases from infected places. During the past 15 years millions of boxes of STEARNS' ELECTRIC PASTE have been used successfully for the killing of Rats, Mice, Cockroaches, etc.

Get a box now of this guaranteed exterminator and use it according to directions which are printed in 15 languages. It is ready for use better than traps. Does not blow into the food like powder. 2 ounce box $5c. 15 ounce box $1.50. Should be enough to kill from 50 to 400 rats. For over 15 years U. S. Government authorities have been recommending this paste for both cases STEARNS' ELECTRIC RAT AND MICE PASTE.

1600,000 in a population of 160,000,000, have seized all political and economic organizations, and use the utmost means to suppress other parties, which are forbidden to use either propaganda or press. While the revolution tends toward the syndicalist system, in reality it is very different from the ideal program. The capitalist regime has been replaced by anything that meets even the most elementary needs of a civilized people."

Lenine Thinks 50 Years Is Needed. Signor Serrati, director of the newspaper Avanti, Socialist organ, has concurred in this report in an address to Socialists at Trieste, according to a dispatch received here. In discussing his recent trip to Russia he is quoted as saying Russia was the least prepared for communism of any country in Europe, and that the great mass of the people was passive and indifferent.

He asserted, it is said, that Nikolai Lenine, the Russian Bolshevik Premier, believed it would take 50 years to complete the work of the revolution, and that others believed a century would be necessary.

THIS group of Suits embraces a range of patterns not usually found in Suits selling at such a low price. They are not hasty "make-shift" garments, but were designed by high-class tailors, and are the product of one of the country's leading Suit makers. We present them as the best obtainable at the price.

THE Fall fashions from the "House of Kuppenheimer" embrace a most interesting collection of real smart Suits that are superbly tailored and fashioned of the character of materials that have won great distinction for this make of clothes. The prices this Fall are very moderate, considering the high quality of this apparel—$45.00 to $85.00.

AS for style and trustworthy fabrics, these Suits will pass every test of criticism, and the man who overlooks this unusual opportunity will find later on that he did not use good judgment. Every Suit is fashioned of fancy mixtures and plain materials, including blue, green and brown, also neat pin stripes.

To Have Curly, Wavy Hair Like "Nature's Own"

Women who have trouble keeping their hair in curl, or of securing the desired wavy effect—especially those who realize the harm that the hot iron does to the hair—will do well to try plain liquid silmerine. In no other way can they acquire such pretty waves and curls, having all the appearance of "Nature's own." And the hair, instead of being singed, ragged or dead looking, has such a lively lustre and wholesome beauty.

If one will get a bottle of liquid silmerine at any drug store and follow the accompanying directions, she will be simply delighted with the result. This product is of course perfectly harmless and there is nothing sticky, greasy or unpleasant about it. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter in what fashion it is done up.

PRODUCES EVIDENCE OF THREAT BY MIX

Man Suing for $37,500 for Assault Shows Record of Remark Preceding Blow.

In the $37,500 damage suit of Alex H. Asadorian, a rug dealer at 4320A Olive street, against Police Judge George E. Mix, growing out of an alleged unprovoked assault by Mix upon the plaintiff when the latter was under cross-examination three years ago in the referee's office, evidence was produced yesterday that Mix had made a threatened remark before he struck Asadorian in the face.

The remark, as read from the record in the referee's court, was: "If I hit him once he will go home on a stretcher."

At the time of the assault Asadorian was testifying in a suit between him and Dr. T. M. Sayman over a rug deal. Mix was Sayman's attorney. Mix's threat followed an admonition by Asadorian's counsel to Asadorian not to talk back to cross-examining lawyers.

Plaintiff Explains Remark.

It was brought out at the trial of the damage suit, which is being heard by a jury in Circuit Judge Ferris' court, that Asadorian in previous litigation had testified in answer to a question by a lawyer in 1912, that he "didn't think it best to be honest in this world." Asadorian explained, over objection by Mix's counsel, that he had been persuaded to give up $8000 worth of rugs on a lawyer's promise that he would be fairly treated and that he had been cheated. This incident had caused him to believe that he made a mistake in being so honest himself when others took advantage of his honesty.

Benjamin H. Charles, Asadorian's lawyer in the Sayman case, and Clarence T. Cline, the referee, were called as witnesses by the rug dealer. They described the attack by Mix, who at the time was not a judge, and stated that the witness did not strike back. Just before being struck he had denied Mix's statement that "he was trying to change his testimony because he had been caught in a lie."

Mix Pleas to Self-Defense.

Asadorian said yesterday that Mix struck him because he was angry that he could not twist his testimony. Mix asserts that he acted in self-defense, believing that Asadorian was about to strike him.

A human skull was shown to the jury yesterday to illustrate the character of the injuries alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff as a result of the blow. It was brought to court at the instance of Randolph Laughlin, attorney for Asadorian.

REPORTS OF FIRE DAMAGE TO STEAMER BISMARCK VARY

Dispatch to Lloyds from Hamburg Says Only One Room on Vessel Was Destroyed.

By the Associated Press. LONDON, Oct. 7.—A wireless dispatch received from Berlin last night says the fire on board the Steamer Bismarck, at Hamburg continued until Wednesday, and that the damage to the vessel amounts to millions of marks.

A dispatch to Lloyds from Hamburg says, on the contrary, that only one room, the one above the engine room, was destroyed by fire.

The Hamburg-American line, according to a dispatch to the London Times from Berlin, holds that the German Government is financially responsible for the damage, inasmuch as the Government took over the ship from the company some weeks ago. In some official quarters in Berlin, the dispatch adds, it is held that Great Britain must bear the loss, as the Bismarck already, to some extent, was under British control.

HARDWICK WINS NOMINATION FOR GOVERNOR OF GEORGIA

Former U. S. Senator During Campaign Outspoken Against the League of Nations.

By the Associated Press. ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 7.—Complete unofficial returns received by the Atlanta Constitution showed early today that Thomas W. Hardwick, former United States Senator, had been nominated for Governor of Georgia in yesterday's Democratic primary. On the face of the Constitution's returns Hardwick carried 100 counties with a total of 234 county unit votes, while his opponent, Clifford L. Walker, former State Attorney-General, carried 54 counties, with 148 votes. One hundred and ninety-four votes were needed for nomination.

Hardwick during the campaign was outspoken in his criticism of the League of Nations. He had the support of Thomas E. Watson, who was nominated by Georgia Democrats recently for United States Senator.

TOKIO FIRE STAMPEDE

American Woman Spoke in Japanese and English and Got Sunday School Crowd Out.

By the Associated Press.
 TOKIO, Oct. 7.—Sessions of the World's Sunday-School Convention, which were interrupted Tuesday afternoon by the fire which destroyed the great hall where the first meeting was held, will be resumed today in the beautiful Imperial Theater.

The playhouse was offered the committees in charge by its founder, Viscount Eschichi Shibusawa, president of the American-Japan Association, immediately after the fire. Premier Hara offered the committee the halls of the Japanese Diet, if it was necessary to use them.

Justice MacLaren of Ontario, vice president of the World's Sunday-School Association, presided at yesterday's session and addresses were made by Marlon Lawrence of Chicago and William G. Landes of Philadelphia. Morning, afternoon and evening conferences were held and were addressed by prominent persons from many lands.

Other meetings are to be held in Manila, Hongkong and Canton, and the Sunday-school message will be carried from Tokyo to Jerusalem through meetings in the Japanese provinces, Korea, China, Singapore, Colombo, India, Cairo and Palestine. Delegates to the convention are unanimous in giving particular praise to Miss Caroline Scherchewsky, an American missionary and daughter of a former Episcopal Bishop to China, for her coolness during the fire. It is said her heroism prevented a disastrous stampede at the tabernacle. She spoke commandingly in Japanese and English, and obtained an orderly retirement of the crowd regardless of risk to herself.

Several persons, including some Americans, were knocked down and walked over during the rush for the exits, but were not badly hurt.

SOLDIER OWNERS OF $375,000 IN LIBERTY BONDS SOUGHT

By the Associated Press.
 NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Speaking at a military reunion dinner, Brigadier-General H. M. Lord, chief of finances of the United States army, said his department in Washington has 4000 Liberty Bonds representing $375,000, which belong to soldiers who cannot be found. The bonds have been held two years, and carry coupons representing $30,000 in interest.

The department, he said, had been unable to reach the owners at the addresses they had given, and has appealed to the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus and other war organizations to help locate them.

Gen. Lord also said his department is holding 3000 discharge certificates of soldiers who also cannot be found.

DEMOCRATS AT CAPITAL GETTING MORE OPTIMISTIC

Showing by President That He Still "Packs a Wallop" and Knows How to Use It
Cheers Party Leaders.

By the Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—For the first time in weeks the faces of Democratic leaders at the capital are wearing smiles instead of the down-in-the-mouth expression that was threatening to become chronic. The change from gloom to optimism over the party's prospects is the cumulative effect of a series of recent developments. First came the heckling of Harding by Edward A. Ryan at Baltimore and the vague and evasive reply of the candidate there.

Ryan got to the very heart of the ailment that is troubling the Republican party when he demanded to know whether Harding agreed with the proposal of Senator Johnson to "scrap" the League of Nations. He asked no more than many others have been asking, but the circumstance of his election from the Baltimore meeting for daring to speak up has served to focus attention on the question—has dramatized it, so to speak.

Harding's reply was the usual "straddle." The whole episode, particularly when contrasted with Cox's readiness to answer the questions of all comers, made good Democratic campaign material. It threw the spotlight squarely on Harding's unwillingness to take a clear-cut stand on the league.

Two Significant Incidents.
Following the Ryan incident came the announcement that Senator Borah had asked the Republican managers not to make any more speaking dates for him. Borah's action may not have been directly inspired by Harding's failure to give a satisfactory answer to Ryan, but it bore that appearance. Either of the incidents would have been significant enough in itself, but coming together, as they did, they brought out in sharp relief the predicament in which Harding finds himself as a result of the thinly camouflaged breach between Republican friends of the league and the irreconcilables.

The President's entrance into the campaign was another tonic to drooping Democratic spirits. His statement of Monday makes it clear that the League of Nations is the overshadowing issue of the campaign. It cannot be submerged either by Republicans or by recalcitrant Democrats. Those Democrats who have watched with misgivings the efforts of some of the party managers to obscure the league issue are expected now to enter into the campaign with renewed zest. The President's statement on the league will be followed by others, all tending to put the campaign on the high plane that he had in mind when at the Jackson day dinner here he issued his famous call for a "solemn referendum."

Cox Strong for League.
On the issue of the League, Gov. Cox is at one with the President. In a recent message to a party spokesman here, Cox said that the more he studied the covenant of the league the more he became impressed with the simplicity of it. He said his league idea had "taken hold of his soul," that otherwise he wouldn't be able to "stand the racket" of his strenuous campaigning.

Another item contributing to Democratic hopefulness is the news that James Thompson has died in Wisconsin as the La Follette candidate for Senator. That means that Lenroot, the regular Republican nominee, faces the defection of the numerous voters of Wisconsin whose sole creed is to follow La Follette. The chances of the Democratic candidate, Paul S. Reisch, former Ambassador to China, are greatly strengthened.

News has come to the White House that the Democratic candidates are gaining in Missouri. The information is doubly welcome in view of the character of the attacks which Senator Spencer has been making against the President and the league. President Wilson's action in putting Spencer into a new Annapolis club is hailed here as indicative of the fact that the President still "picks a wallop" and knows how to use it. It is not revealing any secret to say that the President is personally fond of Breckinridge Long and would like to see him elected, entirely apart from his desire to see a friend of the league win over an enemy.

From Indiana word comes that the women of the State are beginning to take an active part in the fight for the League of Nations. Instances are reported of "war mothers" holding meetings to endorse the league as a preventive of future wars. It is too early to say whether this movement will develop appreciably, but Democrats here are hopeful that women all over the country will throw their influence on the side of the candidates supporting the league. The chances that they will do so, it is thought, have been much improved by the President's coming into the fight.

In the view of the White House, the campaign has just begun. It is recalled that at this stage of the campaign in 1916 Democratic prospects looked no better than they do today, but that the tide turned in October and carried Wilson to victory.

The attitude of the Republicans may be summed up in a word. They are confident, but fearful lest something happen at the eleventh hour to upset their calculations. And that "something" is connected in their minds with what Woodrow Wilson may do.

TWO HIGHWAYMEN CAPTURED AFTER HOLDING UP NEGRO

After Being Robbed, Man Follows Them and Points Them Out to Policeman—Watch on One Identified.

ROBBERS SAY THEY LIVE ELSEWHERE

Youth Taken to Hospital Says He Was Hit With Billiard Cue "for Walking on Fourteenth Street."

Two highwaymen were captured at Jefferson avenue and Olive street by Patrolman Wiley of the Laclede Avenue District at 2:30 a. m. today after they had held up and robbed Eugene A. Beatty, a negro, of 2602 Lawton avenue, taking from him $9.69 and two gold watches.

The prisoners said they were Raymond Harris, 21 years old, of Chicago, a waiter, and George Raymond, 28, of Los Angeles, a machinist. They admitted the robbery and said they arrived in St. Louis last Tuesday, both without funds, and met and became acquainted on Market street. Both said the robbery of the negro was their first job.

After being held up at Compton and Lawton avenues Beatty followed the robbers several blocks and pointed them out to the policeman. When they were searched a revolver was found in Harris' coat sleeve. Raymond had $9.69, the exact amount stolen, and a watch identified by Beatty as one taken from him.

Youth Tells of Being Beaten. Joseph Rush, 19, of 1419A Market street was taken to the City Hospital from Fourteenth street near Chestnut street at 3 a. m. today with a fractured skull. He said he and his brother, George Rush, 17, of 2855 Lafayette avenue, and two other young men had been to a theater and were walking south on Fourteenth street when four men drove up in an automobile. One of the men he said, jumped out of the machine and hit him with a billiard cue after asking what he meant by walking on Fourteenth street.

Two men entered Steve Burgen's saloon at 1701 O'Fallon street at 5:50 p. m. yesterday. One opened the icebox and the other pushed Burgen's into it. They took $20 from the cash register. A customer released Burgen a few minutes later.

Holdup Man Gets 95 Cents. William S. Barron, of 5591A Page boulevard, reported to the police that at 12:10 a. m. today a man with a revolver held him up on Cabanne Way between Cates and Cabanne avenues. Barron said the robber, after taking 95 cents from him, seemed to think he had more money and started to search him a second time, when Barron said: "You know we are not carrying much money these nights." The robber then told him to "beat it."

The Rev. William J. Deboe, a negro, of 1019 North Lettingwell avenue, was held up by a lone highwayman at Lettingwell avenue and Wash street at 10 o'clock last night and robbed of $2.30.

Burglars who entered the home of Max Portner, 4256A Page boulevard, in the family's absence between 8 and 11 o'clock last night, stole $200 worth of jewelry and cut rugs, feather beds, upholstery and clothing. Portner estimated that the damage done by cutting was $700.

Robbers who forced an entrance to Eugene Schertz's saloon, 1329 Chouteau avenue, during the night, took $15 from the cash register, smashed the register, chopped the electric piano and broke a mirror valued at $200.

Max Feldman, a tailor at 858 Hamilton avenue, reported that burglars entered his shop and stole cloth valued at $1100.

Robbers who forced an entrance to Eugene Schertz's saloon, 1329 Chouteau avenue, during the night, took $15 from the cash register, smashed the register, chopped the electric piano and broke a mirror valued at $200.

REFINERY CUTS SUGAR PRICE 103.4 CENTS IN 2 WEEKS

Company, Announcing 11 3/4-Cent Rate, Asserts It Will Hold Wholesalers to Contracts at 22 1/2 Cents.

By the Associated Press.
BOSTON, Oct. 7.—The Refined Sugar Refinery yesterday announced a price of 11 3/4 cents a pound for refined sugar. Two weeks ago the company quoted a nominal price of 22 1/2 cents a pound, with the statement that it was "out of the market," but since that time it has made several reductions.

W. E. Foster, vice president of the American Sugar Refining Co., in a statement to Attorney-General Allen in connection with the latter's inquiry into the sugar situation, said the company would require wholesalers to live up to their contracts for sugar at 22 1/2 cents a pound, notwithstanding recent declines. The company would not be justified in using its surplus of $25,000,000 to offset losses of its customers, he said, adding that if such a policy were seriously undertaken by the management any stockholder would have a right to enjoin the proceeding.

"Is it not a fact that pressure was brought to bear on jobbers to contract for sugar at 22 1/2 cents a pound?" Attorney-General Allen asked the witness. Foster replied that dealers demanded the sugar and that there was a feeling at the time that there would be a shortage in the fall.

The American company made an average profit of two and three-quarters cents a pound on all sugars sold up to September, the witness said. It is now "out of the market" selling only on contracts previously made.

Profits "Slightly Over $11,000,000." Vice President Foster set at "slightly over $11,000,000" the operating profits made by the American company during the first eight months of the year. Attorney-General Allen then sought to obtain from the witness a statement as to the extent to which this profit would be impaired if the company reduced its price on the 40,000 tons of sugar which Vice President Foster said it had on hand.

Foster estimated that if the company reduced its price on the undelivered sugar to meet present market conditions it would cause a loss of $10,000,000.

"Well," Attorney-General Allen asked, "if you took a loss of five cents a pound you would lose only $4,500,000, wouldn't you?"

"So it appears," the witness replied after discussion of the calculations involved, but he added there were many incidental expenses to be considered.

Calling the attention of Foster to a previous statement by him that the company conducted its business on the basis of the ultimate net profit in a year, the Attorney-General continued:

"Then with profit for eight months of $11,000,000, a possible loss of $4,500,000 to meet the market conditions would still leave the company a net profit for the year of $6,500,000, would it not?"

Vice President Foster said it would, but he said there might be some loss to the company if it had to buy in new sugars at a price higher than it had contracted to sell for.

Refined Sugar at 11 Cents, New Low-Price Record.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—A new low record for the year was made in the local sugar market when the Federal Sugar Refining Co. reduced the price of refined sugar one-half cent a pound, to 11 cents.

This is within 2 cents of the price prevailing when the industry was under control of the Government. Raw sugar sold at 8 cents, duty paid.

SWEATERS

IT'S so very easy to keep your sweater looking bright and new; to keep it from shrinking or discoloring; to keep it fluffy and soft; if you wash it with Ivory Soap Flakes.

Nothing could be easier than tossing a few light snowy white flakes of Ivory Soap into a basin of warm water, then sousing the sweater, pressing it and squeezing it a few times, and rinsing. That's all there is to it.

It really isn't work at all—and you know that there is no injury being done because Ivory Soap Flakes is simply the newest, most convenient form of genuine Ivory Soap, which you know has a forty year old reputation for absolute safety in fine laundering.

Ask your grocer for it.

IVORY SOAP FLAKES

Genuine Ivory Soap in Flaked Form

for washing particular things

Safe for Silks and All Fine Fabrics

To Wash Sweaters

Soak for ten minutes in rich, lukewarm Ivory Soap Flakes suds; squeeze and press gently, under water, to expel the dirt. Use a second suds if sweater is badly soiled. Do not rub, pull or twist the knitted fabric. Do not lift the sweater out of the water without first slipping a towel under it, or the weight of the water may stretch it. Very loosely knitted sweaters should be sewed into a cheesecloth bag before washing. Rinse thoroughly in lukewarm water, adding a few Ivory Soap Flakes to the last rinse. Dry flat on a thick towel, in shade, pulling sweater into proper shape, and turning it occasionally.

ELWELL'S WORKS OF ART SOLD

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Disappointment was the portion yesterday of a number of morbidly curious men and women who crowded the auction rooms where works of art and other effects of Joseph B. Elwell are being sold.

The impression was general that the chair in which Elwell was found dying and the blue kimono, said to have been worn by one of his women friends, would be disposed of to the highest bidder. Neither, however, was included.

PATERSON, N. J., Oct. 7.—Joseph S. Elwell of Ridgewood, N. J., father of Joseph B. Elwell, sportsman and whist expert who was murdered in his New York home last June, died in a hospital here early today. Elwell never recovered from the shock of his son's death and suffered a stroke of apoplexy a week ago.

7902 PLURALITY FOR SMALL ON FULL COUNT

Kankakee Candidate and Gov. Lowden Shake Hands When Election Board Announces Totals.

By the Associated Press.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 7.—When the State Canvassing Board completed its work at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, arriving at official totals showing Len Small of Kankakee, the Republican candidate for Governor, had a plurality of 7902 votes over Lieutenant-Governor John G. Oglesby, Gov. Lowden, ex-officio head of the Canvassing Board, and the candidate clasped hands.

This ended the most strenuous of all Illinois primary fights, in which Gov. Lowden had backed Oglesby and opposed with all the forces of administration the candidacy of Small. Figures approved showed Len Small's vote to be 377,005, and Oglesby's 369,103. Downstate gave Small 156,276 and Oglesby 242,400, and Cook County voted 220,729 for Small and 126,703 for Oglesby.

Vote on Attorney-General was next closest to the Small-Oglesby contest vote. Edward J. Brundage was renominated by a majority of 13,793 over Richard Barr. The best race in the primary was run by Secretary of State L. L. Emerson for renomination. By a plurality of over 61,000 votes he outstripped every other candidate on the ticket.

Democratic totals showed James Hamilton Lewis, nominee for Governor, won over Barratt O'Hara by a margin of 126,890. In the United States Senate race to be contested on Robert E. Burke's complaint that the woman vote, which defeated him, was unlawful, Burke got 53,624, and the victor, Peter A. Waller, 57,443. Women's votes in that contest were 29,643 for Waller and 18,502 for Burke. Figures, however, showed the men also gave Waller a majority. He got 66,995 male votes to 65,122 for Burke.

Miss Emma Portell, 16 years old, a telephone operator, shot herself in the left breast with a revolver at the home of her sister, Mrs. Marie Webb, 2628 Hebert street, at 8:15 o'clock last night. At the city hospital today it was said her condition was critical.

Mrs. Webb told the police that Emma had been playing the piano when she left the front room, walked into her bedroom and a few seconds later a shot was heard. The girl was unconscious when found lying on the floor of her room. Mrs. Webb said she was "tired of living," but gave no reason for her despondency.

By the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 7.—Reports that Fernando Iglesias Calderon, Mexican High Commissioner to the United States, had resigned were denied last evening at the presidential office and at the Ministry of Foreign Relations. MEXICAN SLAIN AFTER HE KILLS A POLICEMAN

Others Wounded When Officers at Homestead, Pa., Try to Arrest the Mexican.

By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 7.—Two men, including a patrolman, were killed and a number of persons were wounded at Homestead, a suburb, last night in a pistol fight between police, firemen, county detectives and civilians on one side, and a Mexican on the other.
The trouble started when two officers tried to arrest the Mexican, Ernest Martinez, who was acting disorderly on the street. Martinez drew a pistol and killed Patrolman William Smith and wounded Patrolman Henry Davis.
The Mexican then entered a boarding house, wounded the proprietor and barricaded himself in the building.
Police reserves were called out, and armed with riot guns, tried to get into the house, but were forced to retreat under the fire from the Mexican's gun. Firemen were called and they sought to drive Martinez from the house with smoke and water.
Finally a fireman, armed with a riot gun, gained entrance to the house from the rear and killed the Mexican.

The world's largest user of the purest and best maple sugar offers you the new Karo Maple

A rare and delicious syrup at a moderate price. Don't worry about the high price of maple syrup. Of special interest to every mother

When you wonder how the new Karo Maple gets its delicious tang of rich maple syrup remember—

The makers of Karo Maple use annually over a thousand tons of the purest and best flavored maple sugar from the finest maple groves in Vermont and Canada.

This is one reason why over five million cans of Karo Maple were purchased by American housewives last year.

This is a greater sale, by far, than any kind of maple syrup offered.

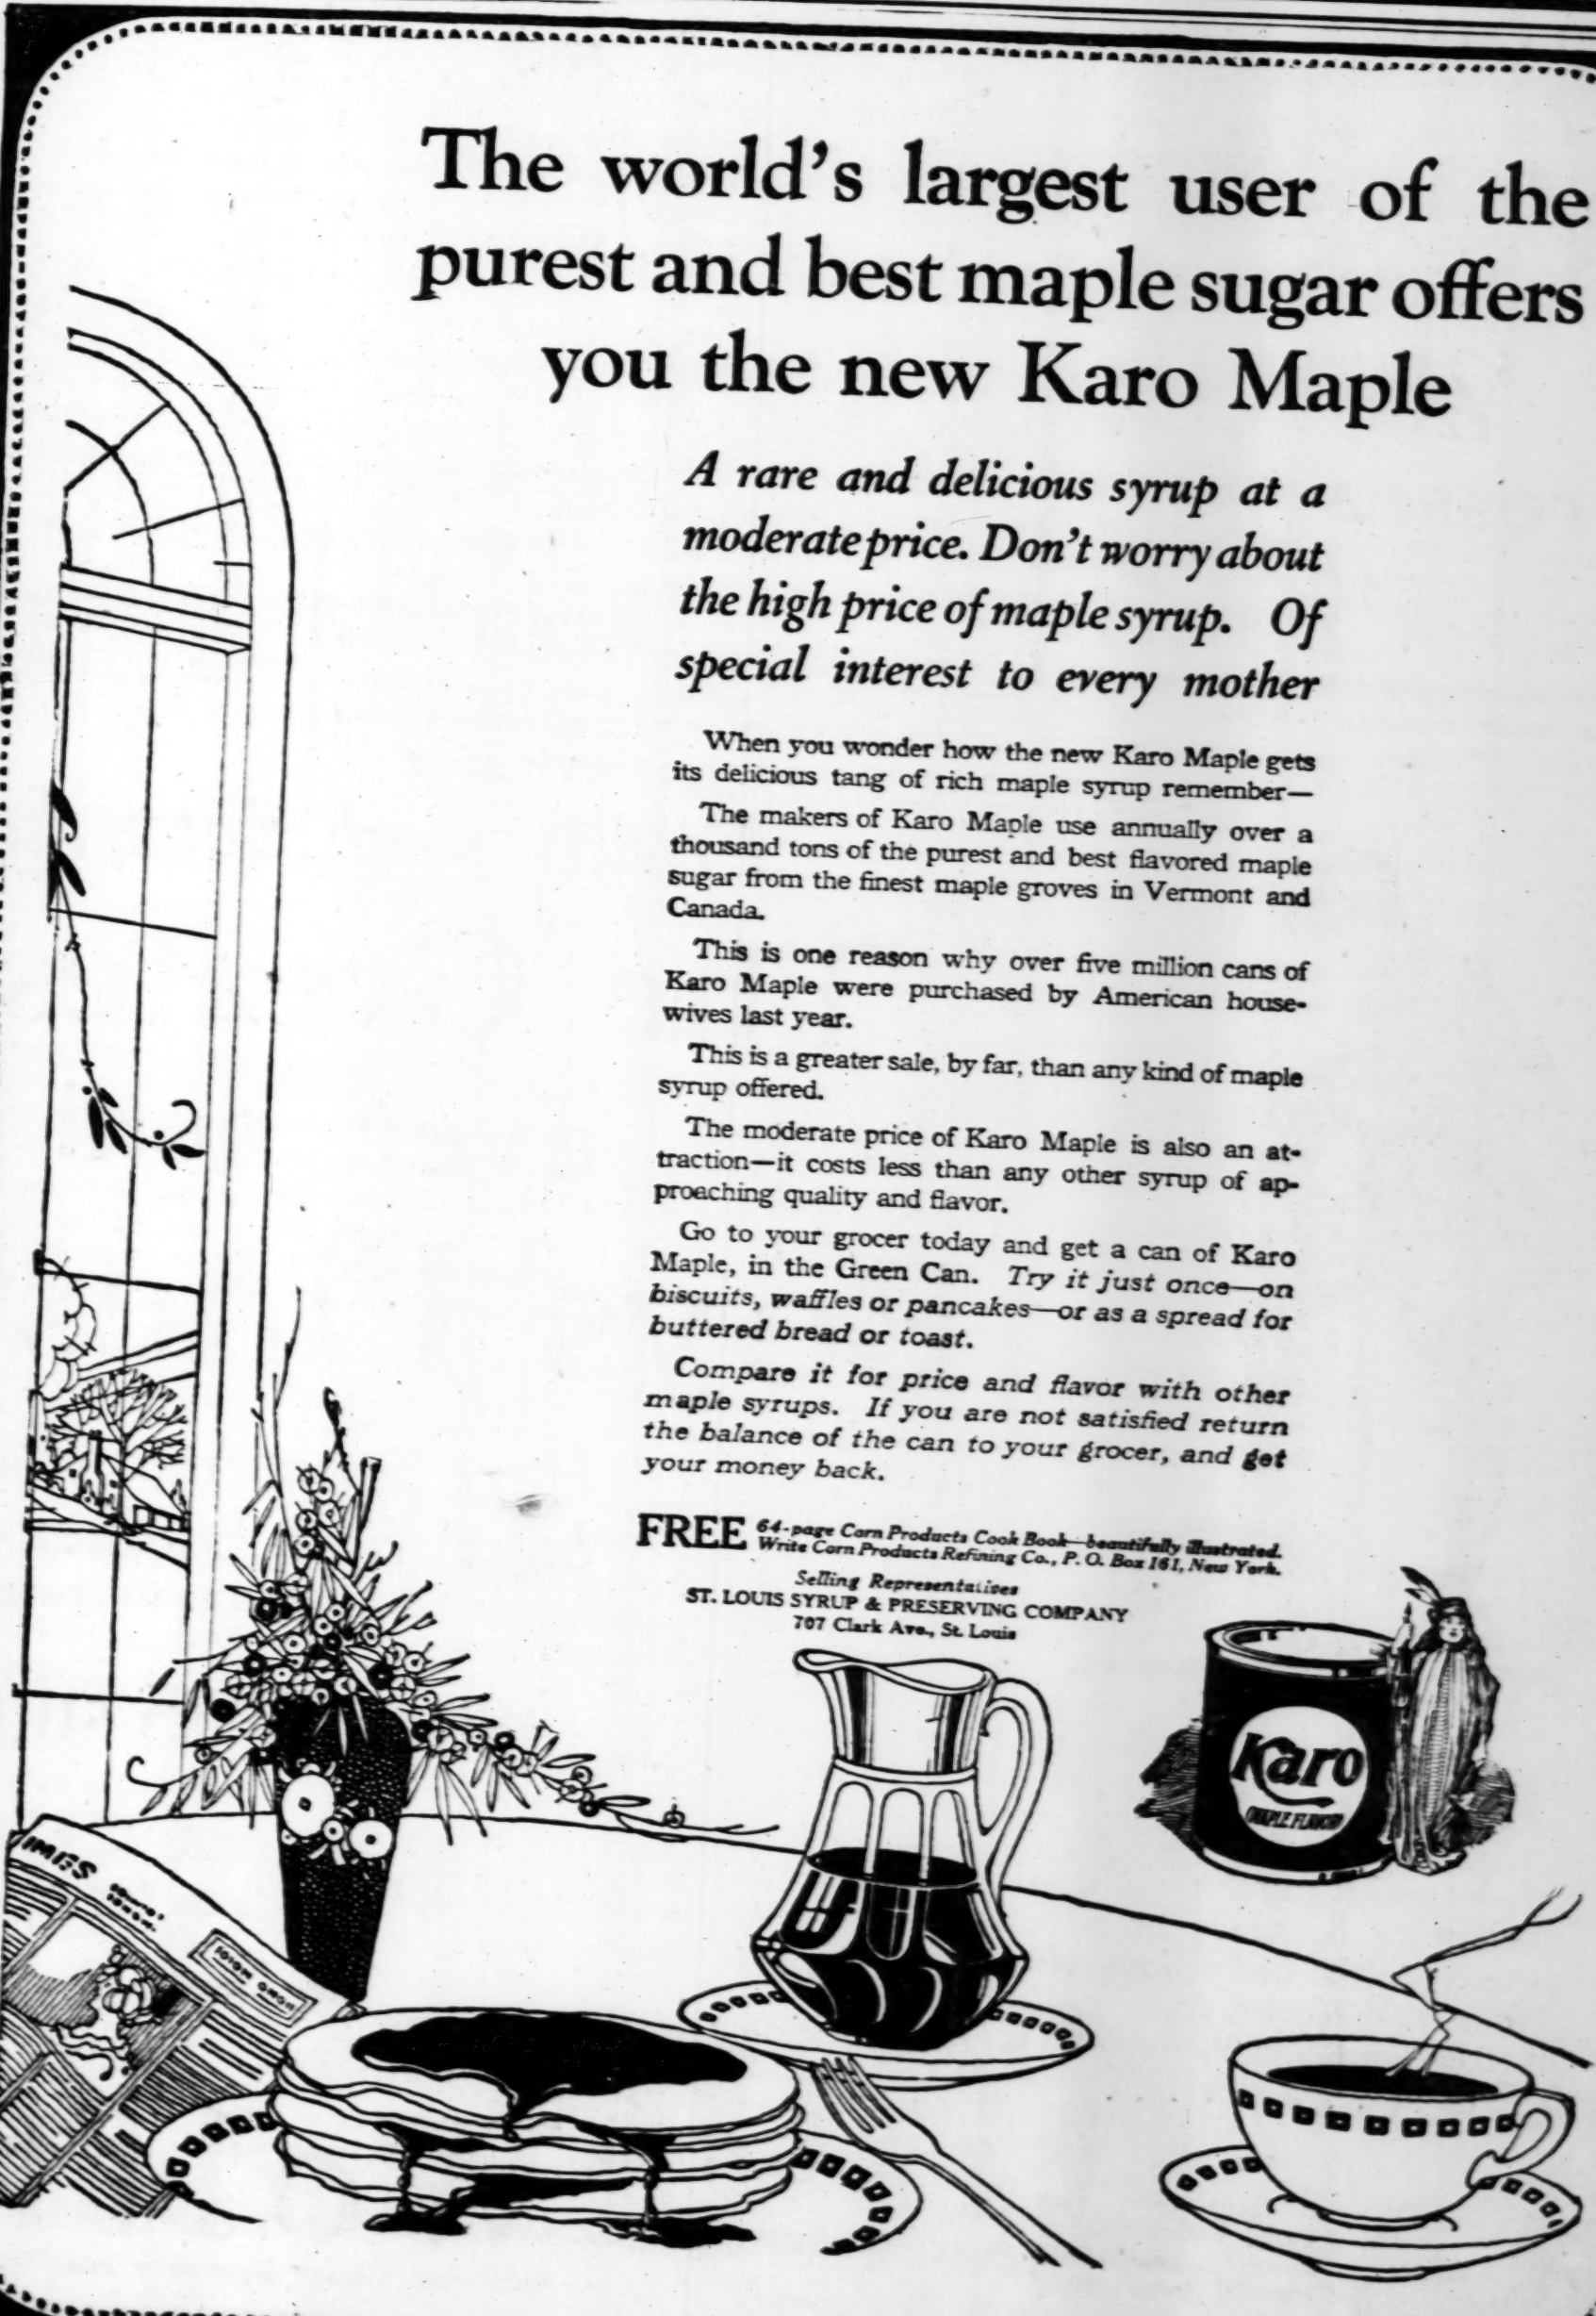

The moderate price of Karo Maple is also an attraction—it costs less than any other syrup of approaching quality and flavor.

Go to your grocer today and get a can of Karo Maple, in the Green Can. Try it just once—on biscuits, waffles or pancakes—or as a spread for buttered bread or toast.

Compare it for price and flavor with other maple syrups. If you are not satisfied return the balance of the can to your grocer, and get your money back.

CAPT. TIERNEY SAYS HE NEVER HAS BEEN DERELICT IN DUTIES

Suspended Official Thought Gambling Was Going on at Daley's Club, but Could Get No Evidence.

HAD PATROLMEN IN PLACE FOR MONTHS

They Were Withdrawn With Chief's Permission—Chief to Prefer Charge of Neglect of Duty.

Chief of Police O'Brien, after a conference with Judge Advocate Bishop, announced today that the technical charge of neglect of duty will be preferred against Capt. William E. Tierney, commanding the LaSalle Avenue District, the two lieutenants, three sergeants and three patrolmen, suspended by him yesterday for failing to prevent gambling at "Lawyer" Daley's Seventeenth Ward Democratic Club, 2234 A Olive street. The trial will be held by the Police Board probably a week from tomorrow.

Capt. Tierney, at his home, 5889 Easton avenue, today, in discussing the charge on which he was suspended, and the political influence of Daley, who formerly was chairman of the Democratic City Committee, and now is chairman of the Executive Committee of that body, said that he was not worried in the least as to the outcome of his case, and defied anyone to prove that he ever had been derelict in police duty.

"Never Afraid of Daley,"
"I never was afraid of Daley's political influence," Capt. Tierney said. "I wear no man's collar, and my record as a policeman speaks for itself. I have been on the force 21 years, and have never before had an accusation made against me."

"The men of my district raided Daley's club, time and again, but never found any evidence of gambling. I have no doubt that gambling was going on there. I received numerous complaints to that effect, but my men were never able to get the evidence. That might sound like inefficiency, but I do not think so in view of the fact that Lieut. Matthews of the police gambling squad raided the place twice and failed to get the evidence."

"From Oct. 31, 1919, to Jan. 5, 1920, I had a special detail of two men inside the club night and day to see that no gambling was permitted, and from Jan. 6 to Feb. 15 I had a special detail of one patrolman there night and day. I withdrew the detail, with Chief O'Brien's consent, when I could no longer spare a man for the work."

Capt. Tierney said that he had never heard any reports that the club was paying for police protection.

Chief O'Brien, when seen, said that he did not recall having given his consent to the removal of the special detail from the club, but he added that he had known the detail was there for the length of time that Capt. Tierney said it was. He would have ordered it removed.

USE BLACK AND WHITE OINTMENT TO REMOVE SKIN BLEMISHES

When the skin has become badly discolored through exposure to sun and wind, when it is marred by pimples, tan, liver spots, you should use Black and White Ointment.
Black and White Ointment contains ingredients which have a marvelous capacity for removing discolorations of the skin, and oils which keep it soft, clear and youthful.
The creamy emulsion will also be found ideal in restoring the delicate tint and fresh complexion of the faded, sunken, dull, lifeless complexion. Or if your complexion is inclined to oiliness or greasiness, Black and White Ointment will cool and refresh the skin, leaving it soft and clear.
Just before retiring thoroughly cleanse the skin with Black and White Soap and Black and White Ointment according to directions on the package. Gently massage on the face, allowing it to remain until morning, when you again cleanse the skin with Black and White Soap. Repeat this for several nights and soon you will be delighted with the improvement in your complexion. If at first the skin should seem a little tender, discontinue for a night or two, then resume as before.
Black and White Ointment is for sale at all drug and department stores. The package (50c size) contains three tubes (as much) Black and White Soap for the face.
Send 10c to Dept. H. K. Froush, Chemical Company, Memphis, Tenn., for samples of Black and White Ointment and Soap. Also copy of your Birthday Bookings.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:
Secure from your druggist 1 oz. of Parmit (double strength). Take this home and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.
Parmit is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tube, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the eardrum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.
Every person who has catarrh in a form, or distressing rumbling, hearing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

Commission spoke on the proposed $80,000,000 road bond issue in Missouri, and J. Lionberger Davis discussed the proposed new State Constitution. About 200 bankers were in attendance.

MAJ. CROWELL LIFELONG REPUBLICAN, WHITE SAYS

Declares Former Assistant Secretary of War Never Has Left His Party.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Chairman White of the Democratic National Committee yesterday made this statement:

"I noticed that wide publicity, in the East at any rate, was accorded two days ago an interview from Maj. Benedict Crowell of Cleveland in favor of Senator Harding. That a man, until recently Assistant Secretary of War under this administration, should take such a stand, was dwelt upon in the dispatches as a sensational fact.

"Out in Ohio they do not find the fact sensational. Maj. Crowell is a life-long Republican, one of the many whom Secretary Baker appointed to office. With many other distinguished Republicans, he served his country in the war, and he is for his party for the simple reason that he never left it. The Dutch have taken Holland," Maj. Crowell in his decision, says the great issue this year is an 'efficient administration.' He ought to know all about the efficiency or the inefficiency of the War Department because he was concerned with it for several years."

Referring to White's letter asking Chairman Hays to use his influence to distribute the league covenant text, Scott Bone, director of Republican publicity here, issued the following statement:

"Concurrently with the issuance of the Republican campaign textbook, a pamphlet was issued containing the full text of the League of Nations covenant with analysis and comment. This pamphlet has had a much wider circulation than the textbook.

"President Wilson's League of Nations covenant has been printed and reprinted by all the larger newspapers of the country. I urge every Republican newspaper to carry the text of Article 10 on the first page until election day. I hope this will be done."

Tommy Teague of Muncie, Ind., who is matched with Billy Cole for the final feature of tomorrow night's boxing show at the Armory, is putting in some good looks at the Business Men's Gymnasium here in anticipation of a hard encounter. As the route is but four rounds, both men will have to be geared up to high speed.

Teague's work yesterday was fast and showed that he was in good condition, observers reported. Teague went three rounds with Harry Kabakoff and two rounds with Charley Silver. He says he will be ready to give all he has.

Billy Cole is also working out at the Business Men's Gym and is displaying good form and condition. The management of the National Sporting Club, which is promoting the Armory show, has stated that the winner will probably be matched with Jack Lawler. Teague recently fought Lawler at Cleveland, O., Lawler getting the decision.

MAN O' WAR STILL RULES
FAVORITE TO DEFEAT
SIR BARTON ON TUESDAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—Man o' War, Samuel D. Riddle's wonder horse, is off for what may be the biggest and most important test of his brilliant career and what may also be his last race.

He was shipped in a special express car from Belmont Park at 10 o'clock yesterday, bound for the Kenilworth Park track at Windsor, Ont., where he will face Sir Barton next Tuesday in their special race at one mile and a quarter for a purse of $15,000 and a gold cup valued at $1000.

Louis Feustel, his trainer, personally conducted the great 3-year-old and on leaving said that the horse was in wonderful condition and would have two or three gallops over the track—one a good stiff workout—before the race is called. If plans are carried out, Guy Redwell, trainer of the Ross horses, will ship Sir Barton from Laurel, Md., to Windsor sometime this afternoon. This really great 4-year-old also is in fine condition, according to reports from Maryland, and he, too, will have two or three gallops over the track on his arrival.

Man o' War continues to be a strong favorite. Most of the trainers at Jamaica, including such excellent judges as Jack Joyner, Tom Welsh, Tom Hooley and Maxey Hirsch, are of the opinion that this amazing 3-year-old will win easily; but Guy Redwell, a shrewd horseman himself, does not think he is shooting at the moon and actually believes that Sir Barton will prove himself the best horse in the country about 4 o'clock next Tuesday afternoon.

YEATMAN TEAM TO MEET
ST. LOUIS U. HIGH TODAY
IN PRACTICE CONTEST

The Yeatman High School eleven will play the St. Louis University High School team at the latter's campus, King's Highway and Oakland avenue, this afternoon in the third practice game of the season for the North Side school, preparatory to the opening of the interscholastic season Oct. 22.

Yeatman has played two tie games thus far, coming away with a nothing-something score in the game with Kirkwood High School two weeks ago, and playing the Webster High team a 13-12 tie the last week. Coach Hill expects to do better in the coming games as he has nine letter men from last year in his lineup.

Three practice games are scheduled for High School Field Saturday. Solderan meets the Washington University freshmen at 10:30 a. m., Cleveland plays East St. Louis in the first of a doubleheader at 1:30 p. m., and Central meets the Western Military Academy eleven at 3 p. m.

Both Solderan and Cleveland will be playing the second game of the season. Solderan opened the year by an easy defeat of the Belleville High School team last Friday, and Cleveland beat the University City High team, 21 to 6, in the first game. Central, following its defeat at the hands of Principia Academy two weeks ago, to 6, came back strong last Saturday and ran up the convincing total of 44 points to Kirkwood's 6.

Many Stars Enter
Women's District
Golf Tournament

From present indications the St. Louis District Golf Association championship tournament for women, which will be held over the Algonquin course next week, will attract a larger field of local title players than did the State tournament last spring. Former city and State champions are among those entered.

Among the entries already received for the play are the following: Mrs. F. E. Newberry and Mrs. George Caulk, Belleville; Mrs. Lansing Ray and Mrs. Sterling Edmunds, Country Club; Mrs. J. A. Corbett, Mrs. S. T. G. Smith, Mrs. G. E. Mix, Mrs. Frances Cooke and Mrs. Wason, Glen Echo; Mrs. C. C. Pangman and Mrs. de Witt Peterkin, Algonquin; Mrs. C. S. Chesbro, Normanville, and Mrs. Oscar, Belleville.

The Algonquin course is being put to the best of condition, despite the late season. This is the first time that women rollers of the district association will have had an opportunity to play over the Webster course since its improvement.

Taking Eaton's for Sour Stomach

"I had sour stomach ever since I had the grip and it bothered me badly. Have taken Eaton's only a week and am much better. Am 80 years old," says Mrs. John Hill.

Eaton's quickly relieves sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, bloating and distress after eating because it takes up and carries out the excess acidity and gases which cause most stomach ailments. If you have "tried everything" and still suffer, do not give up hope. Eaton's has brought relief to tens of thousands like you. A big box costs but a trifle with your druggists' guarantee.

Billikens' Coach Will Name Lineup After Final Work

Showing of Various Players Today Will Decide What Men Will Face Tigers.

Preparation for the Missouri University game will be completed this afternoon, when Coach Charles Rademacher sends his St. Louis University gridiron squad through a final scrimmage session. Today's play will determine the starting lineup for the final game of the program includes only a light jaunt and a few conditioning stunts.

One by one the old timers return to the field and call for thrills. Monday it was Drake who reported, Tuesday came Thornton, and yesterday in trekked Bill Murphy, the scrappy center, who was the pivotal mainstay last season. A few more players will be shown in the passing post since the start of practice, but he will have to show a lot to keep Murphy out of the old position.

Yesterday's bruising mixup put two men on the injured register. Joe Finnegan, the veteran end, and Marion Webb, one of the tackle mainstays, both had to leave the scrum because of injuries. Finnegan, who suffered a broken finger, gave way to Matheson, one of the wing remnants from the 1919 "trot" team; while Webb's ankle allowed Thornton to get into the game. Both injured players are expected to lineup against the Tigertown team Saturday.

Battle for End Position.

There is quite a battle for this job of running mate to Finnegan. Manley is now holding down the office but there are several others who are eager to get into the breach. Matheson, who was very well yesterday, Amarel, just reported, is expected to have his say about the disposition of the end position. A long-term player, it is believed at Sportsman's Park that Z. G. Cleverer, M. U. director of athletics, will have to direct the forward line about the Billikens' end weakness.

There was plenty of opposition for the varsity starting line-up. "Grid" being on hand for the "grid" was also a host of freshmen and these gave the first string players most of their scrimmage. Four stars of other seasons got into the battling and helped to work on the "Grids." These were Johnny McGuire, Joe Corcoran, Ernie Baker and Leo Magin.

At Francis Field, Coach Rider sent his men through their first scrimmage since the Rolla game. Kraehe, Cohen and Kleiber were still back in the line and it was expected that the Drury Panthers, who called Saturday, will furnish stiffer opposition than did the Miners because they use the forward passing game and general open play style.

Fifth Inning.

CLEVELAND—Wood up. Strike one. Ball one. Ball two. Ball three. Sewell walked on four wide balls. O'Neill up. Foul, strike one. O'Neill singled over second. Sewell holding the middle bag. Mails up. Ball one. Strike one. Strike two. Mails hit into a double play. Olson to Kilduff to Ketchy. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

BROOKLYN—Olson up. Ball one. Strike one. Ball one. Strike one. Olson filed to Speaker. Johnston up. Ball one. Strike one. Strike two. Johnston struck out. Neils up. Ball one. Strike one. Mails' curve had a wide break to them and kept O'Neill jumping to and fro. Neils popped to Burns. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Sixth Inning.

CLEVELAND—Evans up. Foul, strike one. Ball one. Evans filed to Wheat. Wambagans up. Smith tossed out Wambagans. Speaker up. Ball one. Strike one. Strike two. Foul, strike three. O'Neill fouled to Ketchy. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

BROOKLYN—Wheat fouled out to Burns. Myers singled to left field. Ketchy hit into a double play. Wambagans to Sewell to Burns. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Seventh Inning.

CLEVELAND—Burns struck out. Gardner went out. Kilduff to Wood. Kilduff also threw out Wood. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

BROOKLYN—Kilduff walked. Miller sacrificed. Mails to Burns. Smith hit a long foul over the right field wall, which was foul by only a few feet. Smith struck out. Olson walked. Sewell threw out Johnston. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

Eighth Inning.

CLEVELAND—Sewell grounded to Ketchy. O'Neill put a Texas leaguer in left center. Nunamaker batted for Mails. Jamieson ran for O'Neill. Wambagans up. Smith tossed out Wambagans. Speaker up. Ball one. Strike one. Strike two. Foul, strike three. O'Neill fouled to Ketchy. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

BROOKLYN—Uhl went to the hill and Nunamaker hit the bat for Cleveland. Neils filed to Evans. Wheat singled to Sewell. Myers tapped to Uhl. Ketchy filed to Speaker. NO RUNS, ONE HIT, NO ERRORS.

Ninth Inning.

CLEVELAND—Smith threw out Evans. Olson tossed out Wambagans. Olson threw out Speaker. NO RUNS, NO HITS, NO ERRORS.

SMITH'S FINE PITCHING WINS THIRD CONTEST OF SERIES FOR BROOKLYN

other one. The next was high and inside, and Olson walked. Johnston made a pretty sacrifice in front of the plate, and was thrown out by O'Neill. Caldwell showed such symptoms of uneasiness that Mails was sent to warm up. Griffith hit one to Sewell. Smith came on an apparently easy bound, but Sewell muffed it. Grif-

I'll Write in Chronology Order, Just Like a Dairy, Says Lardner

"Expert" Travels to Second World's Series Game With Man Who Writes Gags for Comic Operas, and There Follows a Friendly Contest at Cracking Funny Ones.

By RING W. LARDNER.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 7.—The boss said it was the custom amidst good reporters these days to write things up in chronology order and use the present tense in writing things up so why don't you try it once he says. So I thanked him for the compliments and ast him what and the he'll was he talking about and he exclaimed himself, so we will start in with yesterday AM and go through the day like it was a dairy.

I got up 8 o'clock and go in the bath rm to take a bath but the water ain't hot so I don't take no bath. The same thing has happened the past few days. I move the water will be hot but the hotel at Cleveland. Oh diary I hope so.

I shave myself in the ice water and puts on my worlds serious close and goes down broad street and back up to Brooklyn and stop and worked good all summer on act of the damp. I pound hard on the pepper shaker to wake it up and the top comes off and old Oscar Pepper dives into the eggs in to. My 1st wife says she will get the pepper out of the cup and she does so and also the eggs. I sneeze a few times and get up and look at the table and play a few tunes on different instruments with I have mastered and finely it comes along noon and I start for the daily pilgrimage to Brooklyn and stop and back up Gene Buck that writes the funny gags in the Follies and take him along in the hopes he will make a few cracks that I can write up and give you guys a laugh.

Our Friend, Col. Broad.

We got to Ebbets Field and up in the press box and they's a friend of Hughey Fullerton's setting there and I ask him to move over a seat and give Gene and I 2 seats together. So Hughey's friend gives up his seat and I thank him and come to find out its a broken seat and about as comfortable as a man betting on Cox and I wished I had my thanks back.

Well, Gene looks at the score card and the copy they's a picture of Robbie and it says, "Wilbert Robinson the Man O'War of the 1920 baseball season." That's funny, says Gene, "naming a baseball player after a race horse." So I says, "Yes and a specially Robbie. Don't they know no famous elephants?" "I will make you a little bet," says Gene, "that I tell him I can't spend no money in a broken seat on a empty stomach, so I grab the subway and come down town to write this diary, and I am still picking Smith to get away from in front and when I see him I will tell him to get out of my sight." "That is," I says, "unlucky Robbie should happen to get away from a race horse." "That is," I says, "unlucky Robbie should happen to get away from a race horse." "That is," I says, "unlucky Robbie should happen to get away from a race horse."

That was enough. Caldwell and he got the rest of the day off. Mails taking his place. Koney popped a high one to Wambagans, and eased up a bad-looking single. Kilduff ended the agony with a long fly to Wood, with Brooklyn two up.

Good Fielding Saves Dodgers.

Gardner got a tough break in the second inning with a smash to left which would have been an easy double if fair. But it fell foul by about a foot. Then he sent a high fly to Griffith. Griffith killed an in-clipped double by Wood by making a wonderful catch off his shin. After a desperate run, Sewell died a very hard grounder that Koney had difficulty in handling, recovering in time to toss to Smith for the put-out. Only three Indians faced Smith in this round, and one of them hit the ball and hit it hard, but could not get a break.

In Brooklyn's second time at bat, Miller, after a patient wait, succeeded in coaxing a base. Smith tried to sacrifice, but popped up a little fly, of which Mails made a pretty catch, tossing it to Burns in time to complete a double play. Olson cracked a pretty single to center, but tried to go down on the first ball pitched. He was pegged out by O'Neill to Wambagans.

Kilduff Makes Nice Play.

The third inning saw Kilduff make a beautiful play when he grabbed a grounder that O'Neill bounced off Koney's mitt and threw to Smith in time for the putout. Mails hit it solidly for a line drive to Myers. Evans grounded out, from Kilduff to Koney.

The Dodgers failed in their half of the third. With the count two-and-two Johnston sent one to Wambagans and was thrown out. The change to a left-handed pitcher led to Robinson's sending Neils into the seventh, issuing two free transactions. When the pinch came, however, he had the Dodgers breaking their backs.

Wambagans Wastes a Hit.

In the sixth, with one down, Myers made the first hit for the Robins in three innings, sending a hot single to left field. Koney, however, doused all hope by hitting into a double play.

Burns swung desperately to break the pitching efforts of Smith, in the Cleveland seventh, but registered a total failure, striking out. Gardner and Uhl, Johnston couldn't even rock Smith's severity and both died on taps to Kilduff.

The pitching on both sides at this stage surely proved what the late Addie Joss once said—that pitching is 80 per cent of a baseball game.

Waltz Two Seventh.

Mails showed his first sign of unsteady in the Brooklyn seventh, issuing two free transactions. When the pinch came, however, he had the Dodgers breaking their backs.

Kilduff was patient and walked. A sacrifice followed, Mails to Burns. The first drive over the fence was made by Smith, but it didn't mean anything. It sailed over the right field wall by 20 feet. Then Smith struck out, and it was up to Olson to try to bring in Kilduff from second. Olson was anxious, but Mails was cautious, and, in the end, Olson walked. With two on bases and a 3 and 2 count, Mails threw a fast one and Johnston hit it, but he could not make good. Sewell taking his ground and throwing him out at first.

MAYBE SO.

Ballplayers don't seem to be writing much this year. It is reported that some of them are "pen" shy.

"CHICK" EVANS SUFFERS FROM 'GENERAL RUNDOWN' DUE TO HARD CAMPAIGN

DULUTH, Minn., Oct. 7.—Charles (Chick) Evans, Jr., national amateur golf champion, is in St. Luke's Hospital here, under treatment for "general rundown condition, resulting from his hard campaign this summer." The attending physician said last night, "His illness is not serious."

A week or ten days in the hospital is expected to put Evans back in his usual physical condition, the physician said, "as all he needs is a rest." Evans was on his way to his home in Chicago from Port Arthur, Ont., where he had played, when he suddenly became ill as the train reached Duluth. He was taken to the hospital immediately.

ACROBATIC INTRUDER VIEWS GAME FROM FENCE AFTER PERILOUS WALK

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—There came to the second world's series game at Ebbets' field yesterday a chap that got just 2,555 laughs for himself. He came without "openers" and sat the pastime out on a perch that, heretofore, has never been graced by an innocent. He saw the game from atop the right field fence. The manner of his coming, however, made 2,555 hearts come up in his throat and sort of stick there until he sat down on the half-inch edge and made himself as comfortable as possible.

That fence was 20 feet high. How he ever scaled it is a mystery, for it was an outside job. He was seen to appear and without hesitating he began a perilous trip along the top for fully 50 yards before he reached a support back of the fence. He hung on and slid into a sitting position.

Half way from the point where he made his entrance into the world's series this fence walker almost died a Kellerman. He flapped his wings furiously as he tried to keep his balance. He got on a plumb line finally and continued his trot through space with all the reckless abandon of a Leon Errol or a Bird Mill man.

He was seen to appear and without hesitating he began a perilous trip along the top for fully 50 yards before he reached a support back of the fence. He hung on and slid into a sitting position.

Half way from the point where he made his entrance into the world's series this fence walker almost died a Kellerman. He flapped his wings furiously as he tried to keep his balance. He got on a plumb line finally and continued his trot through space with all the reckless abandon of a Leon Errol or a Bird Mill man.

Umpire Evans Says Indians' Defeat Was Due to Failure Of Johnston in "Pinches"

Cleveland First-Sacker Had Three Chances to Break Down Dodgers' Defense and Missed Out on Each Occasion

—Elmer Smith a Close Second.

By BILLY EVANS, American League's premier Umpire.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Oct. 7.—The story of Cleveland's defeat in the second game of the world's series yesterday deals largely with First Baseman "Doc" Johnston of the Indians. It was not a case of too much Johnston, but rather "too little." It was not what "Doc" actually did, but what he didn't do. Elmer Smith ran "Doc" a close second on the didn't stuff.

In the opening inning Johnston was a bit late in getting over to first on a ball hit to the youngster Sewell. It caused him to slightly delay his throw, and when he did cut loose it was into the dirt. Perfect execution of that play would have nailed the runner at first, although it was scored a hit. Failure to get his man, which resulted in the first run of the game, rather unsettled Sewell, and didn't help his confidence any, although his work was not responsible for the defeat of the Cleveland club.

In the second inning Gardner led off with a double, and Grimes appeared nervous. In fact, Grimes, throughout the game, seemed to be working under a great mental strain. It looked as if Cleveland would surely tie it up. Johnston made two attempts to sacrifice. Both pitches were perfect strikes, but "Doc" fouled them off. Compelled to hit, he grounded sharply to Grimes and Gardner was caught off second. That nipped in the bud a rally that seemed certain to at least tie the score.

Johnston Misses Hall of Fame.

Johnston's real big chance to do came in the eighth, but once again "Doc" didn't. With the bases filled, as the result of three bases on balls, a base hit would have put Cleveland very much in the game. The very best he could do was a grounder to Kilduff that retired the side. A double at that stage would have tied the score and made Johnston an overnight hero.

With the series standing even up, the pitching situation slightly favors Robinson. I am convinced that Cleveland's chances to win the classic are largely in the hands of Cleveland. He must win three games of the Indians to be real dangerous, and I believe he will turn the trick. He is certain to start at least three times against Brooklyn. If the weather should cause a couple of postponements he may go offener.

MUNICIPAL SOCCERITES HOLD MEETING TONIGHT

At a meeting tonight at Community Center Hall, Grand and Vista, arrangements will be made for the ninth annual campaign of the Municipal Soccer League. The gathering is called for 8 o'clock and all those interested in the kicking sport are invited to attend. Last season the Municipal Association enjoyed its best campaign.

MANIPULATION STOCK MARKET CLOSE INSET

Rails and Industrials Up, but Prices Hold in Many Cases

By Leased Wire From the Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—The market today was quiet, with the transformation of the market from the recent apparent normal movement to a more active one, with the underlying factors seemed to be in the hands of the market. Ontario Under Fuel Restrictions.
By the Associated Press.
TORONTO, Oct. 7.—The Province of Ontario yesterday returned to wartime fuel conditions. The Government is said to have taken this drastic step at the recommendation of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners, as a result of a shortage of coal caused by the recent strike of 10,000 anthracite miners.

POLICE ARMORER BADLY HURT WHEN HIT BY AUTO

William Meder Suffers Second
Skull Fracture Since Becoming Member of Department.

William Meder, 56 years old, of 5641A Wells avenue, armorer for the Police Department, was injured seriously at 7:45 o'clock last night when struck by an automobile driven by Frank Josifko, 25, of 2831 Market street, a machinist, as Meder crossed King's highway at Wichita street, on his way home from the Laclede Avenue Station.

At Barnes Hospital Meder was found to have suffered a fractured skull, the second injury of the kind in his career as a policeman, and also a fractured left knee and internal hurts. Doctors said his condition was critical.

Statement by Driver.
Josifko said he was driving north in King's highway and as he swerved slightly to avoid the street car tracks at that point he was blinded by the headlights of automobiles south-bound, and did not see Meder crossing the street.

Meder, 15 years ago, suffered a fractured skull when, in a battle with a negro highwayman, the negro took Meder's club and struck him on the head with it. At that time Meder's life was despaired of and doctors performed a delicate operation, removing part of the skull and inserting a silver plate. Meder subsequently resigned as a patrolman and the Police Board offered him the position of armorer, he being an expert locksmith and an expert with guns.

Boy, 7, Hurt by Auto.
Fred Boul, 7, of 1329 North Seventh street, was cut and bruised when knocked down by an automobile driven by Samuel Burns of 3436 Oxford avenue, Maplewood, in front of 717 O'Fallon street.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Col. R. J. Bright 87, former Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate and founder of the Indianapolis News, died at his home here today.

He had been in poor health for some months. Col. Bright, during a long political career, served as sergeant-at-arms of the three Democratic national conventions at which President Cleveland was nominated. His funeral will be held Friday.

MOTHER KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS IN AUTO CRASH; BABY UNHURT

The parents of Wallace Holmburg, 10 weeks old, are gratefully marveling at his escape from injury Sunday night, when he was thrown from an automobile to the street in a collision at the southwest corner of Forest Park. His mother, who was holding him in her arms when the crash came, was rendered unconscious, but when the baby was picked up he was found not to have a scratch. Subsequently, an X-ray examination showed that he had suffered no injury.

E. L. Holmburg, a mechanic, of 4119 Maryland avenue, was driving south on Skinker road with his wife, his brother-in-law, Grover Daniels, and Mrs. Daniels. As he started to turn into Forest Park a machine coming from the south collided with Holmburg's car. The baby was thrown out on the side where the machine hit, and narrowly escaped being run over.
